

FOOD BOXES!!

During lockdown people have had to change the way they shop. Some people have continued to go shopping using social distancing, some have switched to click and collect whilst others have booked home deliveries from Morrisons, Tesco, Asda, Sainsbury's and Waitrose. There is another alternative that has really taken off during lockdown – Recipe Boxes.

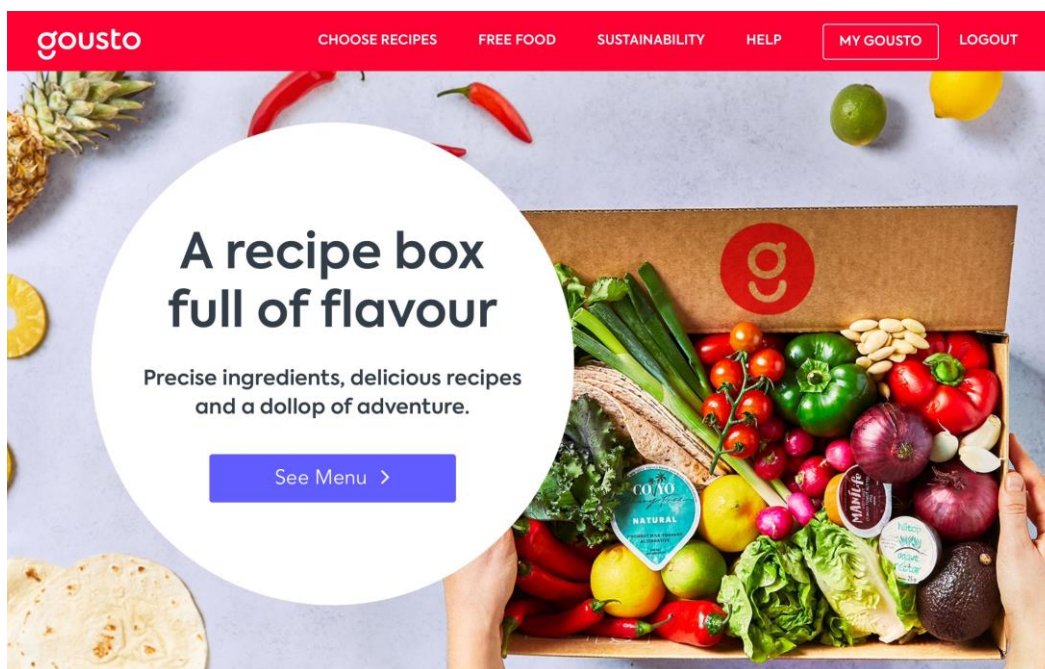

A recipe box contains all the ingredients needed as well as a recipe card with detailed instructions of how to prepare it. Typically a box will be for 2 or 4 people and can include 2,3 or 4 dishes.

Your task is to explore some of the companies out there and to analyse them before making a recommendation in the form of a review.

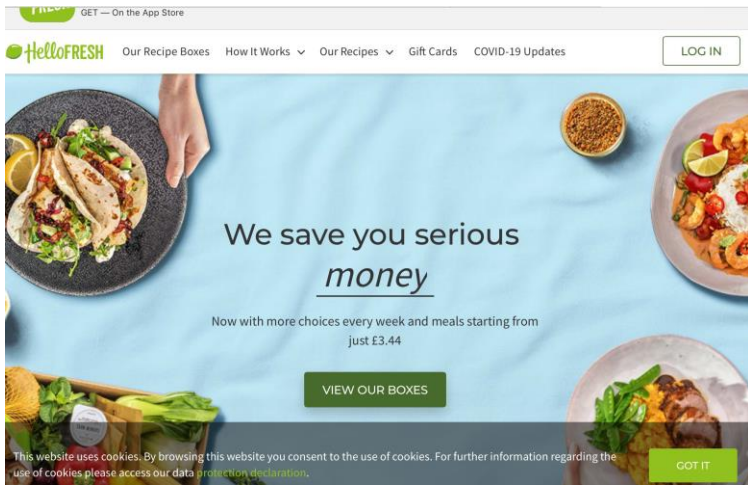

Below are the links to 4 different companies, there are more out there!

You can explore them online to see what they offer.
