

Geography Overview – Year 8

Autumn Development	Spring Coasts	Summer Kenya
Understanding the meaning of development, developed, developing Identifying how development is measured Looking at the effects of overpopulation and a lack of resources Case Study – China’s one-child policy	Definition of a coast – imagery Impact of waves – erosion, deposition, transportation Coastal landforms – characteristics and formation Coastal flooding – causes and effects Protecting the coast – hard and soft engineering strategies	Map work – Africa and Kenya Development of Kenya – statistics Urban and rural life in Nairobi. Traditional Kenyan group – case study Maasai Mara. Impacts of tourism on Kenya – positives and negatives.
ASSESSMENT –Case Study – China – Interpretation essay	ASSESSMENT – Hard engineering strategies are more effective at protecting the coast - essay	ASSESSMENT – Knowledge test Assess impact of tourism on Kenya