September 2025

Year Group:	13
Subject:	History
Lesson1:	Hi Everyone, We hope that you have had a lovely summer, below is the check list for the next submission for 15th September, if you are ahead of this please continue with the work you are doing. Make sure that you have completed everything below and that you have doubled checked everything. A really good way is to read your work out loud to someone- get them to listen to your argument and to tick off the list below as you read it. Submission 4:
	Have I...?
	Introduction - outline the arguments and what line you are going to follow
	No first person throughout the essay
	Sources - do they agree/disagree with the statement
	Sources - do they support your line of argument
	Sources - Minimum of 6 through the essay
	Interpretations - do they agree/disagree with the statement
	Interpretations - does it support your line of argument
	Interpretations - minimum of 5
	Counter arguments - do interpretations agree with each other or your line of argument?
	SPAG/word count - 3000-4000

Referencing - make sure every quote has quotation marks, reference and is in bibliography (YOU WILL NOT GET GOOD MARKS IF THIS IS WRONG!)

Lesson 2

Preparation for Russia Topic

Our next main topic, worth 40% of your final mark, is Russia and its Rulers 1855-1963

In preparation for this, you will need to complete slides 3-5 with some preliminary research about the rulers in this period.

You may not understand all the ideas/ reforms/ events straight away- this activity is design to begin to get you used to some of the keywords and ideas of the period.

You will need to bring/ submit your work for the first lesson back with Mrs Loudon
