

Mathematics Courses

Students are put in ability sets according to the data received from the middle schools. All students start the GCSE Mathematics course in Year 9. Formal half termly assessments are recorded on the student flight path, which indicate a current and predicted grade. There are two tiers of entry for GCSE - higher and foundation. A three year GCSE in Mathematics should enable all students to access the new content at each tier of the 9-1 GCSE.