

Passive Problem Cards

Place the cards face down on the table. Children pick a card and read it out loud. Then decide whether it is written in active or passive voice and discuss their choice.

The chime bar is tapped with a beater.

twinkl.com

As you squeeze the brakes on your bike, it slows down.

twinkl.com

Ashok's birthday present was secretly hidden by his mum.

twinkl.com

The windows have been cleaned this morning.

twinkl.com

Amazingly, the magician pulled a rabbit from his top hat.

twinkl.com

Hoping to be chosen for the solo, Helen practised her recorder every day.

twinkl.com

On the plain, a young antelope was chased by the lioness.

twinkl.com

The plane was boarded by the family travelling to Spain.

twinkl.com

Harry ate ham and cheese sandwiches for lunch most days.

twinkl.com

The precious jewels were stolen last night.

twinkl.com

In anticipation, I opened the door slowly.

twinkl.com

The children enjoyed kayaking down the river this morning.

twinkl.com

Turkey is always eaten by my family for Christmas dinner.

twinkl.com

Every morning, the school is unlocked by the caretaker.

twinkl.com

The vet gave my dog an injection against diseases.

twinkl.com

My lazy sister ignored her alarm clock for the fifth time this morning.

twinkl.com