Privacy notice for parents/carers

1 Introduction

- 1.1 Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the schools use any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.
- 1.2 This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about pupils.
- 1.3 We, Seaton Valley Federation (Astley Community High School, Seaton Sluice Middle School and Whytrig Middle School) c/o Elsdon Avenue, Seaton Delaval, Northumberland, NE25 0BP, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.
- 1.4 Our data protection officer is Mr Darren Hobson (see 'Contact us' below).

2 The personal data we hold

- 2.1 Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about pupils includes, but is not restricted to:
 - Contact details, contact preferences, date of birth, identification documents
 - Results of internal assessments and externally set tests
 - Pupil and curricular records
 - Characteristics, such as ethnic background, eligibility for free school meals, or special educational needs
 - Exclusion information
 - Details of any medical conditions, including physical and mental health
 - Attendance information
 - Safeguarding information
 - Details of any support received, including care packages, plans and support providers
 - Photographs
 - CCTV images captured in school
- 2.2 We may also hold data about pupils that we have received from other organisations, including other schools, local authorities and the Department for Education.

3 Why we use this data

- 3.1 We use this data to:
 - Support pupil learning
 - Monitor and report on pupil progress
 - Provide appropriate pastoral care
 - Protect pupil welfare
 - Provide necessary services such as, but not limited to, school canteen payments and school library loans
 - Assess the quality of our services
 - Administer admissions waiting lists
 - Carry out research

- Comply with the law regarding data sharing

4 Our legal basis for using this data

4.1 We only collect and use pupils' personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we process it where:

- We need to comply with a legal obligation
- We need it to perform an official task in the public interest

4.2 Less commonly, we may also process pupils' personal data in situations where:

- We have obtained consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests)

4.3 Where we have obtained consent to use pupils' personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

4.4 Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using pupils' personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

5 Collecting this information

5.1 While the majority of information we collect about pupils is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

5.2 Whenever we seek to collect information from you or your child, we make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional. If it is mandatory, we will explain the possible consequences of not complying.

6 How we store this data

6.1 We keep personal information about pupils while they are attending our school. We may also keep it beyond their attendance at our school if this is necessary in order to comply with our legal obligations. Our record retention schedule sets out how long we keep information about pupils. We follow the retention guidelines set out in the Information and Records Management Society's (IRMS) toolkit for schools. A copy of this schedule is available online, via the IRMS website (www.irms.org.uk), or upon request from the schools.

7 Data sharing

7.1 We do not share information about pupils with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

7.2 Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about pupils with:

- Our local authority - Northumberland County Council - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information, such as safeguarding concerns and exclusions
- The Department for Education - to perform an official task in the public interest or where we need to comply with a legal obligations

- The pupil's family and representatives - where we need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests)
- Educators and examining bodies - to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for; to perform an official task in the public interest or we have obtained consent to use it in a certain way
- Our regulator, Ofsted, - where we need to comply with a legal obligations or to perform an official task in the public interest
- Suppliers and service providers - to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for
- Financial organisations - where we need to comply with a legal obligations or to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for
- Central and local government - where we need to comply with a legal obligations; to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for; to perform an official task in the public interest or we have obtained consent to use it in a certain way
- Our auditors - where we need to comply with a legal obligations or to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for
- Survey and research organisations - we have obtained consent to use it in a certain way
- Health authorities - where we need to comply with a legal obligations or where we need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests)
- Security organisations - where we need to comply with a legal obligations or where we need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests)
- Health and social welfare organisations - where we need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests)
- Professional advisers and consultants - to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for.
- Charities and voluntary organisations - where we need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests) or we have obtained consent to use it in a certain way
- Police forces, courts, tribunals - where we need to comply with a legal obligations or where we need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests)
- Professional bodies - where we have obtained consent to use it in a certain way

8 National Pupil Database

- 8.1 We are required to provide information about pupils to the Department for Education as part of statutory data collections such as the school census.
- 8.2 Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database (NPD), which is owned and managed by the Department and provides evidence on school performance to inform research.
- 8.3 The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and exam boards.
- 8.4 The Department for Education may share information from the NPD with other organisations which promote children's education or wellbeing in England. Such organisations must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use the data.

- 8.5 For more information, see the Department's webpage on how it collects and shares research data.
- 8.6 You can also contact the Department for Education with any further questions about the NPD.

9 Youth support services

- 9.1 Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we are legally required to pass on certain information about them to Northumberland County Council, as it has legal responsibilities regarding the education or training of 13-19 year-olds.
- 9.2 This information enables it to provide youth support services, post-16 education and training services, and careers advisers.
- 9.3 Parents/carers, or pupils once aged 16 or over, can contact our data protection officer to request that we only pass the individual's name, address and date of birth to Northumberland County Council.

10 Transferring data internationally

- 10.1 Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

11 Parents and pupils' rights regarding personal data

- 11.1 Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that their school holds about them.
- 11.2 Parents/carers can make a request with respect to their child's data where the child is not considered mature enough to understand their rights over their own data (usually under the age of 12), or where the child has provided consent.
- 11.3 Parents also have the right to make a subject access request with respect to any personal data the school holds about them.
- 11.4 If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you or your child, we will:
- Give you a description of it
 - Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
 - Explain where we got it from, if not from you or your child
 - Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
 - Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
 - Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form
- 11.5 Individuals also have the right for their personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.
- 11.6 If you would like to make a request please contact our data protection officer.
- 11.7 Parents/carers also have a legal right to access to their child's educational record. To request access, please contact the data protection officer.

12 Other rights

12.1 Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe, including the right to:

- Object to the use of personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent it being used to send direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

12.2 To exercise any of these rights, please contact our data protection officer.

13 Complaints

13.1 We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

13.2 If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

13.3 To make a complaint, please contact our data protection officer.

13.4 Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF

14 Contact us

14.1 If you have any questions, concerns or would like more information about anything mentioned in this privacy notice, please contact our data protection officer: Mr Darren Hobson (Data Protection Officer), Seaton Valley Federation, Elsdon Avenue, Seaton Delaval NE25 0BP; telephone 0191 2371505; or email dpo@svf.org.uk.

This notice is based on the Department for Education's model privacy notice for pupils, amended for parents and to reflect the way we use data in our schools.

Privacy notice for pupils

1 Introduction

- 1.1 You have a legal right to be informed about how our school uses any personal information that we hold about you. To comply with this, we provide a 'privacy notice' to you where we are processing your personal data.
- 1.2 This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about you.
- 1.3 We, Seaton Valley Federation (Astley Community High School, Seaton Sluice Middle School and Whytrig Middle School), are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.
- 1.4 Our data protection officer is Mr Darren Hobson (see 'Contact us' below).

2 The personal data we hold

- 2.1 We hold some personal information about you to make sure we can help you learn and look after you at school.
- 2.2 For the same reasons, we get information about you from some other places too - like other schools, the local council and the government.
- 2.3 This information includes:

- You, or your parents/carers, have given us permission to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your interests (or someone else's interest)

4.3 Where we have got permission to use your data, you or your parents/carers may withdraw this at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for permission, and explain how to go about withdrawing consent.

4.4 Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your information overlap, and there may be several grounds which mean we can use your data.

5 Collecting this information

5.1 While in most cases you, or your parents/carers, must provide the personal information we need to collect, there are some occasions when you can choose whether or not to provide the data.

5.2 We will always tell you if it's optional. If you must provide the data, we will explain what might happen if you don't.

6 How we store this data

6.1 We will keep personal information about you while you are a pupil at our school. We may also keep it after you have left the school, where we are required to by law.

6.2 We follow the retention guidelines set out in the Information and Records Management Society's (IRMS) toolkit for schools. This sets out how long we must keep information about pupils.

6.3 A copy of this schedule is available online, via the IRMS website (www.irms.org.uk), or upon request from the schools.

7 Data sharing

7.1 We do not share personal information about you with anyone outside the schools without permission from you or your parents/carers, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

7.2 Where it is legally required, or necessary for another reason allowed under data protection law, we may share personal information about you with:

This notice is based on the Department for Education's model privacy notice for pupils, amended to reflect the way we use data in our schools.

Privacy notice for staff

1 Introduction

- 1.1 Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.
- 1.2 This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school.
- 1.3 We, Seaton Valley Federation (Astley Community High School, Seaton Sluice Middle School and Whytrig Middle School) c/o Elsdon Avenue, Seaton Delaval, Northumberland, NE25 0BP, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.
- 1.4 Our data protection officer is Mr Darren Hobson (see 'Contact us' below).

2 The personal data we hold

- 2.1 We process data relating to those we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our school. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

4.2 Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

4.3 Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

4.4 Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

5 Collecting this information

5.1 While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

5.2 Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

6 How we store this data

6.1 We create and maintain an employment file for each staff member. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your employment.

6.2 Once your employment with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our record retention schedule.

- 6.3 We follow the retention guidelines set out in the Information and Records Management Society's (IRMS) toolkit for schools. This sets out how long we must keep information about staff.
- 6.4 A copy of this schedule is available online, via the IRMS website (www.irms.org.uk), or upon request from the schools.

7 Data sharing

7.1 We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

7.2 Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

- Our local authority - Northumberland County Council - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information, such as safeguarding concerns and exclusions
- The Department for Education - to perform an official task in the public interest or where we need to comply with a legal obligation

8 Transferring data internationally

8.1 Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

9 Your rights

How to access personal information we hold about you

9.1 Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

9.2 If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

9.3 You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

9.4 If you would like to make a request, please contact our data protection officer.

Your other rights regarding your data

9.5 Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing

This notice is based on the Department for Education's model privacy notice for the school workforce, amended to reflect the way we use data in our schools.

Privacy notice for governors and other volunteers

1 Introduction

- 1.1 Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.
- 1.2 This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals working with the federation in a voluntary capacity, including governors.
- 1.3 We, Seaton Valley Federation (Astley Community High School, Seaton Sluice Middle School and Whytrig Middle School) c/o Elsdon Avenue, Seaton Delaval, Northumberland, NE25 0BP, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.
- 1.4 Our data protection officer is Mr Darren Hobson (see 'Contact us' below).

2 The personal data we hold

- 2.1 We process data relating to those volunteering at our school. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:
 - Contact details
 - References
 - Evidence of qualifications
 - Employment details
 - Information about business and pecuniary interests
- 2.2 We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This may include information about (where applicable):
 - Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions
 - Disability and access requirements

3 Why we use this data

- 3.1 The purpose of processing this data is to support the federation to:
 - Establish and maintain effective governance
 - Meet statutory obligations for publishing and sharing governors details
 - Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
 - Undertake equalities monitoring
 - Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers who require them

4 Our legal basis for using this data

- 4.1 We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where:

- We need to comply with a legal obligation
- We need to carry out a task in the public interest

4.2 Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

4.3 Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

4.4 Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which means we can use your data.

5 Collecting this information

5.1 While the majority of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

5.2 Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

6 How we store this data

6.1 We create and maintain a file to store personal information about all volunteers. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your work with the school.

6.2 When your relationship with the school has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our record retention schedule.

6.3 We follow the retention guidelines set out in the Information and Records Management Society's (IRMS) toolkit for schools. This sets out how long we must keep information about staff.

6.4 A copy of this schedule is available online, via the IRMS website (www.irms.org.uk), or upon request from the schools.

7 Data sharing

7.1 We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

7.2 Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

- Government departments or agencies - to meet our legal obligations to share information about governors/trustees
- Our local authority - Northumberland County Council - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as details of governors
- Suppliers and service providers - to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as governor/trustee support

- Professional advisers and consultants
- Employment and recruitment agencies
- Police forces and courts

8 Transferring data internationally

8.1 Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

9 Your rights

How to access the personal information we hold about you

9.1 Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

9.2 If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

9.3 You may also have a right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

9.4 If you would like to make a request, please contact our data protection officer.

Your other rights regarding your data

9.5 Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

9.6 To exercise any of these rights, please contact our data protection officer.

10 Complaints

10.1 We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

10.2 If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

10.3 To make a complaint, please contact our data protection officer.

10.4 Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF
