1 Introduction

- 1.1 You have a legal right to be informed about how our school uses any personal information that we hold about you. To comply with this, we provide a 'privacy notice' to you where we are processing your personal data.
- 1.2 This notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about pupils at our schools, like you.
- 1.3 We, Seaton Valley Federation (Astley Community High School, Seaton Sluice Middle School and Whytrig Middle School) c/o Elsdon Avenue, Seaton Delaval, Northumberland, NE25 0BP, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of UK data protection law.
- 1.4 Our data protection officer is Mr Darren Hobson (see 'Contact us' below).

2 The personal data we hold

- 2.1 We hold some personal information about you to make sure we can help you learn and look after you at school.
- 2.2 For the same reasons, we get information about you from some other places too - such as other schools, the local council and the government.
- 2.3 Personal information that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:
 - your contact details
 - your test results
 - your attendance records
 - details of any behaviour issues or exclusions
 - information about how you use school computers and other IT and communications systems
- 2.4 We may also collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) information about you that falls into 'special categories' of more sensitive personal data. This includes, but is not restricted to:
 - information about your characteristics, like your ethnic background or special educational needs
 - information about any medical conditions you have
 - photographs and CCTV images

3 Why we use this data

- 3.1 We use the data listed above to:
 - get in touch with you and your parents or carers when we need to
 - check how you're doing in exams and work out whether you or your teachers need any extra help
 - track how well the school as a whole is performing
 - look after your wellbeing

- make sure our information and communication systems, equipment and facilities (e.g. school computers) are used appropriately, legally and safely

4 Use of your personal data for marketing purposes

- 4.1 Where you have given us consent to do so, we may send you marketing information by email or text promoting school events, campaigns, charitable causes or services that you might be interested in.
- 4.2 You can take back this consent or ‘opt out’ of receiving these emails and/or texts at any time by clicking on the ‘Unsubscribe’ link at the bottom of any such communication, or by contacting us (see ‘Contact us’ below).

5 Use of your personal data in automated decision making and profiling

- 5.1 We don’t currently put pupils’ personal data through automated decision making or profiling. This means we don’t make decisions about you using only computers, without any human involvement. If this changes in the future, we will update this notice in order to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

6 Use of your personal data for filtering and monitoring purposes

- 6.1 While you’re in school, we may monitor what material you access on our computers and other IT and communication systems. We do this so that we can:
- comply with health and safety law and other laws
 - comply with our policies, such as Child Protection and Acceptable Use
 - keep our network and devices safe from people who aren’t allowed to access them, and prevent harmful software from damaging our network
 - protect your welfare

7 Our lawful bases for using this data

- 7.1 Our lawful bases for processing your personal data for the purposes listed above are in accordance with:
- the ‘public task’ basis - we need to process data to fulfil our official duties as a school

 - the ‘vital interests’ basis - we will use this personal data in a life-or-death situation
- 7.2 Where you’ve agreed that we’re allowed to use your information (‘given consent’), you may take this back at any time. We’ll make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you’d go about withdrawing consent if you want to.

8 Our basis for using ‘special category’ data

- 8.1 For ‘special category’ data, we only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and one of the following conditions for processing as set out in UK data protection law:
- We have got your explicit consent to use your information in a certain way

- We need to use your information under employment, social security or social protection law
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The information has already been made obviously public by you
- We need to use it to make or defend against legal claims
- We need to use it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation
- We need to use it for health or social care purposes, and it's used by, or under the direction of, a professional obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to use it for public health reasons, and it's used by, or under the direction of, a professional obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to use it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the use is in the public interest

8.2 For criminal offence data, we will only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and a condition for processing as set out in UK data protection law. Conditions include:

- We have got your consent to use it in a specific way
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made obviously public by you
- We need to use it as part of legal proceedings, to obtain legal advice, or to make or defend against legal claims
- We need to use it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation

9 Collecting this data

9.1 While most of the information we collect about you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to give us.

9.2 Whenever we want to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you have to give us this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not doing that), or whether you have a choice.

9.3 Most of the data we hold about you will come from you or your parents, but we may also hold data about you from:

- local councils
- government departments or agencies
- police forces, courts and tribunals

10 How we store this data

12.3 The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information it holds is securely collected from schools, local authorities, exam boards and others.

12.4 The Department for Education may share information from the database with other organisations, such as organisations that promote children's education or wellbeing in England. These organisations must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use your data.

12.5 You can find more information about this on the Department for Education's website on how it collects and shares personal data.
