

RISE provide mental health support to school pupils. They have compiled a list of links to online resources, including mental health support and advice that they think will help parents and children cope during the COVID19 pandemic. The links are within the 'resources' section of their website.