

Young Minds is a UK charity fighting for children and young people's mental health. Their website has lots of useful information for parents, carers and young people. They have a new page on coronavirus and mental health and supporting your child during the coronavirus pandemic.