Paris Trip 2026

CODE OF CONDUCT

SELWOOD ACADEMY Paris 2026

* Indicates required question

For the duration of the trip all students must be aware that they are representing Selwood Academy. We therefore expect an exceptional standard of conduct. Any poor behaviour is a reflection, not only on the student, but also on the party as a whole. Any breach of these conditions will result in a loss of privileges and any serious problems will be dealt with on return to the UK or could possibly result in a student being collected.

It is expected that all students will comply with the following simple instructions:

Contacting your child

- ▶ Mobile phones will be allowed on the trip but it will be your responsibility to look into roaming charges as well as your child's responsibility to look after the phone itself.
- ▶ Students are encouraged to take photos but should not post on social media and should make sure all in the photo have consented to it.
- ▶ Phones will be taken in at bed time and looked after by a member of staff.
- ▶ Year 5 will have 'down-time' throughout the journey where they will spend time screen-free.

Out of hours contact

- ▶ Mrs Batchelor is the out of hours contact and she will be sharing updates throughout the trip. If you have any concerns, then she is your first point of contact.
- ▶ You will receive an email from her a few days before the trip so please check for this.
- ▶ Her email address is: cbatchelor@selwood.mnsp.org.uk
