everyone is invited.

End of Year Show (Years 4-6) 'The Lion King'

Monday 11th July - afternoon performance 1.30pm

Tuesday 12th July – evening performance 4.30pm

Tickets are £2 (cash only please)

Tickets are initially limited to 2 tickets per family (due to numbers and size of hall) but if we have any tickets left over nearer the dates we will be able to sell extra tickets to those that need them. Tickets are on sale from the School Office – cash only.

Opal Playtimes

Just a quick reminder that we very rarely call 'wet play' now that we run OPAL lunchtimes. Due to the pesky summer showers we can get, we ask that children bring a light raincoat or jacket in to school every day, just in case! If children have a waterproof suit in school they do not need to do this. Thanks for your support.

End of Year Reports and Information

Your child's end of year report will go out on Thursday of next week (7th July)

by Class Dojo. Most parents prefer to receive it that way and it saves on the cost of paper but if any parents do want a paper copy of the report please let us know and we can arrange for a copy to go out to you.

We will also let you know on Thursday 7th July who your child's class teacher will be next year and on the following morning (8th July) they will visit their new class and teacher for the morning to get to know them properly and become familiar with their new room.

Reception class will be doing this on a separate day and over a few sessions to make it easier for them.
They have Tots and Tyres on Friday, which we don't want to cancel for them as they enjoy it so much.

Whole School Events/Dates Coming Up

OFSTED - Please be aware that we are due a visit from Ofsted at any moment - this means that some events may have to be delayed or rearranged (e.g. Sports days or performances) because Ofsted will want to talk to teachers and pupils and subject leaders and we can't manage big events and show Ofsted the brilliant things we are doing at the same time.
