19th September 2025

'Where children come first'

Welcome back to the new school. We are continuing to settle in to our lovely new building. Please keep an eye on class dojo for latest communications. If you having difficulty with class dojo or school money let the school office know and we will help.

Please check on the link below if your child is entitled to Pupil Premium and if so please apply as soon as possible before the end of September to secure this extra funding. Any queries contact the school office.
