TOYS

Toys in the 1960's were a little different to today's toys. There were no PlayStation or X-Boxes then!

30 years ago, technology was becoming more advanced and more toys worked using batteries.

Nowadays, many toys are electrical and technology is advanced.

MUSIC

Music has changed since the 1960's too and so has how we listen to it!

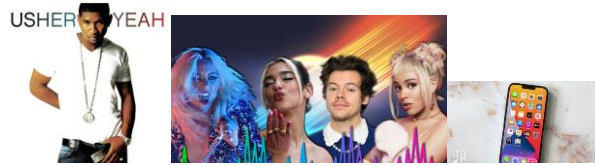

People in the 1960's would use record players to listen to bands like The Beatles.

In the 1980's pop music was from people like Madonna, Wham and Culture Club.

Nowadays, people listen to music through their phones and computers and even have wireless headphones!

TRANSPORT

Long ago, people were only able to walk or use horse and cart to move from place to place.

Nowadays, we have a wide variety of modes of transport, including flying in aeroplanes!

The Wright Brothers - Wilbur and Orville Wright, invented the first aeroplane in 1903 - over 100 years ago!
