Dear Parents and Carers,

Just a quick reminder that there will be several (really fabulous) videos for your children to view from next week. The teachers have created Maths and English sessions again for your access with children and additionally our support staff have created some really lovely videos for your children to watch with extra-curricular ideas. These videos will continue to be uploaded throughout the coming weeks.

We all really hope you enjoy watching these; I know the children will love them!

Have a lovely weekend,

Kind regards,

Sarah Richards
