WEEKLY INSTRUCTIONS

WEEK 9

Monday

Welcome to the start of the week. Everyone at Purple Mash hopes you had a great weekend. Today we continue to read the novel 'Horde of Ravens', our story set in Roman Britain. In today's chapter, Queen Boudica comes to Conan's village. Conan's father tells him the Romans have betrayed the Iceni, and now their tribe will join the Iceni in a revolt against the Romans.

After reading the story, there is a comprehension exercise to complete and for the extended writing: Conan said that he used to enjoy campfires when chiefs and elders would tell stories from the tribe's past. Write a short story that could be told at a campfire.

In maths, it is time to race against the computer playing a game of 2Race. Today you will be comparing numbers up to 100,000. Remember the more correct answers you give, the quicker the racer will move, and you will win the race.

It is then time for some coding. In today's exercise you need will write some code linked to a football match. Remember to use the hint videos if you need some extra support.

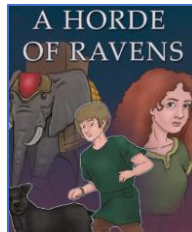

simple SOFTWARE

Remember to set some time aside for PE to ensure you keep fit. This could be a run around the garden, a brisk walk with your mum or dad or watching a keep fit routine on the Internet.

Tuesday

In today's chapter of our story, Conan and his uncle Turi ride over to the Iceni and learn how to make a carnyx, the Celtic war horn that is feared in battle, even by the Romans. After completing the comprehension exercise, now that we have seen Conan react in a range of situations, create a character profile about him. Remember to use evidence from the story to support your opinions.

In maths you will carry out some work involving the four number operations.
