Office Reminders:

- Please inform the school office in writing, as soon as possible, if there is a change in your family circumstances or you have a new address or phone number. Thank You
- Nut free school – please refrain from sending snacks and packed lunch items that contain nuts. We are proud to be a nut free site and this helps to keep pupils safe who do have nut allergies.
- If your child is absent from school, please contact the school office before 9am to report an absence. (In line with the attendance policy, if your child is attending a medical appointment we will request proof of the appointment for our records. This can be sight of a text reminder, a letter or appointment card)
- Please label all school uniform items – PE lessons are an ideal time for things to go missing! Please support us by naming all items.
- Please ensure your PPay account is checked regularly and payments made in a timely manner.
