

Autumn Term in Year 6

KINDNESS RESPECT
INTEGRITY

Writing

Mapping the imaginary world from "Journey" and creating the factual front matter informing readers of the land accessed by crayon.

Developing the character of a Spitfire pilot and writing a first person narrative of a mission.

Excitable Edgar - a third person narrative inspired by the famous John Lewis advert. Festive cheer to end Autumn term.

Maths

We are...

10,000,000

expanding our place value knowledge to be able to read, write and manipulate numbers up to ten million.

learning to use the formal methods of long multiplication and division

Science

We are...

working as physicists to investigate electrical circuits using practical equipment as well as a computer simulation.

grouping and classifying living things as biologists including microorganisms.

Reading

We are...

discovering the culprit in part 3 of Wild Boy.

exploring life in World War 2 for children and the challenges faced then.

PSHE

How can we keep healthy as we grow?

We are...

exploring healthy habits including sleep habits, healthy diets and the impact of screen time on the body.

Geography

We are...

deepening our knowledge of our own port city, Southampton by understanding European role and comparing it with Le Havre, France.

History

We are...

investigating the contribution of our local community to war effort in World War 2.

invasion and conflict

RE

We are...

learning about some of the rituals observed by Muslims and incarnation means to Christians

Computing

We are...

learning about safe passwords, managing information online and online reputation

Art

We are...

learning the skills we need to draw our own self portraits

P.E.

We are...

learning to use a variety of tactics playing Hockey and Rugby.

choreographing and performing gymnastic performances using a range of techniques and learning about different areas of fitness and setting targets to develop these.

Emotions curriculum

Year 6 start their journey to become emotions coaches for the rest of our community.

