Well done...

Congratulations to Amy who has passed her Stage 3 in swimming. Well done, Amy!

3A Sofia

For being resilient throughout your English learning this last week.

You have tried to learn new words and use them within your own sentences using pictures and prompts to help you. Also amazing resilience within your Maths learning. Well done!

Dexter

For showing determination and focus within all your lessons. You were brilliant at creating your own rap and performing to the class as well as focusing on your subtraction using the column method. You are now confident at using it. Great effort well done!

3W Cody

For fantastic resilience this week!

After being ill, he returned as though he'd missed nothing—showing great enthusiasm. He wrote an exciting ending to our class story and caught up brilliantly in column addition and subtraction. What a superstar!

Oscar B

For showing fantastic focus! He has been pushing himself to achieve more and has worked hard to master the skills of column addition and subtraction with exchanging and regrouping. I am very proud of his resilient attitude and brilliant effort.

3I Emilia

For having such brilliant resilience in Maths this past week. Even when things got a little tricky, you kept on going, working with adults for help and became really successful. Massive well done 😊

Jacob

For having great determination in Maths this week, You've worked incredibly hard solving different column subtraction questions, really ensuring you set every question out carefully. Fantastic working attitude – well done 😊

Ethan

Ethan worked very hard and showed real independence when creating his diary entry as Hiccup from How to Train Your Dragon. He tried his best throughout the task and showed great effort in his writing. Well done. 😊

Danielle

Danielle worked independently throughout her writing and maintained a strong focus while writing her diary entry as Hiccup. She showed a clear understanding of Hiccup's voice, using his thoughts and feelings effectively to bring the character to life. Well done. 😊

Bobby

Has put real focus into his independent write this week, creating a diary entry for Hiccup from How to Train your Dragon. He has shown determination and effort to ensure that he included all of the features. Thank you Bobby.

Amelia

Has worked incredibly hard on her independent write to ensure that not only has she included all the features of a diary entry, but also that she made it an eventful and interesting read, laid out in chronological order. Well done Amelia.

Meikah

For demonstrating kindness towards others, great patience and for having a brilliant work ethic. His consistent effort in all school life activities brings positivity to our classroom. Well done for being a true star!

Sara

For showing a fantastic enthusiasm for maths recently. She has brilliant ideas and is explaining her reasoning with growing confidence. Keep up the amazing work!
