Katie

For working hard to achieve in your Maths last week and your writing this week. Katie you have focused and shown you can use the column method adding two digits together confidently. You've also shown independence in writing your letter to the Winter's Child. Well done!

Gabriel

For your consistent hard work in all lessons but in particular your writing. I have really enjoyed reading your letter to the Winter's Child and can see you have reflected and edited well. You have lots of great ideas and have used these effectively in your writing. Great work Gabriel!

Esme

For working so incredibly hard in all subjects. You have made so much progress this year and I am blown away. Your dedication to your learning is brilliant and I am very proud of you.

Jude

For working so incredibly hard in your independent write this week. You have really thought about your vocabulary and your handwriting is beautiful too. Well done!

4B

Knixon

For being a great friend, listening carefully and consistently working well in all areas of the curriculum as well as helping around the classroom.

Mia

For being a fabulous member of the class, always helpful and kind. Also, being a great participant during Stone age day.

4G

Liv

For being such a good friend: patient, caring, and always working hard. It's inspiring to see how much effort and kindness you put into everything you do. Well done 😊

Fraser

For showing such dedication in your learning by working hard, always being ready to learn, and staying focused without letting others distract you. Well done! 😊

4S

Max

For being an excellent classmate in 4S, contributing wonderful nuggets of information to our discussions and fully entering into the spirit of Stone Age Day with a fantastic wolf-boy costume.

Nancy

For working very hard in class each and every day, in particular this last week for sustained effort and concentration to produce her independent write.
