Excellent improvements in her handwriting and doing EXTRA homework!

Miss Lebber's Award of the Week

Ronnie G 6D

For supporting younger children at lunchtimes without being asked to.

3A Blake

For an amazing attitude to learning these past few weeks. He has listened to feedback well and never given up! He has shown excellent resilience and he has experienced great success as a result. Well done, Blake!

Ada

Fantastic work in her English and her Maths! Ada has listened carefully and been keen to give things another go if she has made a mistake. It has been wonderful to share your success with you. Well done, Ada!

3W Jorge

Jorge is an amazing and resilient member of the class. He consistently listens, follows the rules, and actively seeks advice on how to improve his work. He is always striving to do better - fantastic skills for life.

Brody

For working incredibly hard on his English, especially when writing descriptions, actions and speech within a story setting. He ensured he used SCAPS and included amazing, ambitious language - well done!

3I Araya

For working incredibly hard this week. You have created some brilliant sentences for our story, using great adjectives and your handwriting is beautiful. You are always very polite to students and adults. Well done! 😊

Oliver

For working exceptionally hard with your writing these last few weeks. You've thought really carefully about your vocabulary choices and made your writing exciting for the reader - big well done 😊

4B
Adam

For always being a great role model and learning partner, he is listening carefully in maths especially and always willing to share his ideas. Well done.

JJ

For developing his learning behaviours and working so well on his recent independent write – a character description with lovely similes and expanded noun phrases which was beautifully published.

4S
Joe M

For showing an excellent positive attitude towards his learning. Consistently trying his best in both Maths and English, particularly with his independent writes. Joe also engages really well in Spanish and .

Penny

Since starting the Spring term, it has been great to see Penny steadily building on her key skills across the core subjects. She shows independence and resilience to complete her work which results in positive outcomes.

4G
Penelope

For working incredibly hard and consistently demonstrating positive learning behaviours. Penelope has stayed focused, listens well, and persevere even when tasks become challenging. It's wonderful to see your confidence growing. Well done!

Tobi

For showing impressive effort during his independent writing task. Tobi worked hard to develop a detailed character description of a dragon, using imaginative ideas and thoughtful vocabulary. It's wonderful to see his confidence growing as he applies his learning so independently. Well done!
