Founded in 1971, Little Tennessee Valley Educational Cooperative (LTVEC) is a public nonprofit agency formed by local school systems in East Tennessee. Our mission is to help all children reach their potential by partnering with parents, schools, and communities.

AT4Kids is the AT Center at LTVEC, which provides resources and guidance for all aspects of Assistive Technology (AT) and Alternative and Augmentative Communication (AAC) assessment, implementation, and training in the educational setting.

Coronavirus and Me Part 1: WHY IS MY SCHOOL CLOSED?

Sometimes when I'm sick, I stay home from school.

When many people at my school get sick, they will close our school.

Now, my school is closed, but I'm not sick. Neither are my friends.

They closed my school before people got sick to protect us from the germs.

People on TV say there's a sickness going around all over the world.
They call it COVID-19 or the coronavirus.

Some people are getting really sick with a fever, cough, and trouble breathing.

It's scary, but I don't have to be scared! If I do get sick, I will get better because I'm young and strong.

I don't know when school will be open again. When school opens, I will see my friends and my teacher.
