

Here is a timetable you may find useful to structure your day when learning from home. Each day's learning, including videos and resources will be posted on the website and Video Resource Centre, but you may want to use some of these resources too.

9:00am	9:30 – 9:45am		10:30 – 10:45am		11:30 – 11:45am	12:00pm	1:00pm	1:15- 1:30pm		2:00- 2:15pm	2:15pm+
Live PE workout!	Phonics		Handwriting		English learning		Reading	Maths learning		Topic learning 'It's a Kind of Magic'	Any extra activities
 Click here for Joe Wicks' live PE workouts! These are only live on Mon, Wed & Fri; however, there are other workouts you can do on Joe's channel on Tues & Thurs! Alternatively, here you will find Go Noodle's YouTube Channel!	 Phonics Play have provided free access to their website! Username: Jan21 Password: home Can you read and spell the Phase 2 common exception words listed here? What about Phase 3 here? Watch Geraldine's phonics videos on YouTube here.	Free choice	 Always warm up with a fine motor or gross motor activity. Many of these can be accessed through YouTube such as Jack Hartmann, Learning Station, Dough Disco, Go Noodle etc. Follow the magic pencil here to make sure you are forming letters correctly! (at the bottom) Click here to learn letters in their families.	Free choice	 Start off with 15 minutes spelling practice. You could also use Spelling Frame or Spelling Shed. Go to the Literacy Shed website for some visual literacy inspiration. Use BBC Bitesize to help with language and literacy skills.	Lunch	 Find somewhere comfortable to read your own book. Click here to listen to lots of different bedtime stories on the CBeebies website. Here is a link to Oxford Owl, a free e-book library of book banded books! You'll just need to sign up for free first.	 Below are some extra Maths resources you may wish to use: Click here for some online activities which will give your child the opportunity to practise their Maths skills. Have fun!	Free choice	 See your Foundation Subjects planning for activities and sessions you can complete to learn more about our exciting topic!	Could you complete a creative activity? e.g. draw, paint, craft a picture What could you build? Role play and imaginative play with your toys? Develop your balance and co-ordination by riding your bike or scooter, skipping or hopping outside, throwing or catching etc.

Also, look out for Mrs Peart's Weekly Challenge! Your class teacher will also be organising weekly catch ups – watch out for the email to invite you!