5 to 11 year olds can get COVID-19 vaccinations

Two doses give strong and long-lasting protection.

Vaccines protect children against serious infection and can reduce disruption to family life, school and holidays.

Find out more and book today: www.nhsselvax.com