

3rd March 2023

Dear parents and carers,

There are many exhilarating events coming up this term. Please find them below:

World Book Day was held today. We invited all staff and pupils to dress as their favourite book characters. We held assemblies in KS2 and KS3 that dived into many of the children's favourite book characters. I am excited to share the pictures with you in next week's letter and on the website.

For 'Living Eggs,' our paddle of ducks will be in school on Monday March 6th.

We are also excited for Red Nose Day which will be back on the Friday March 17th.

Coffee Mornings

It was good to meet KS2 parents on Wednesday. The next coffee morning is on Wednesday March 8th for KS3 families at 9:15 am.

Dance Showcase

As we have done each Spring, you will be invited to a dance lesson with your child in the final week of this half term. You will be able to see what happens in the dance class, join in the fun and learn how it supports your child's development. More details will follow with times and dates.

Sensory Sundays

Sensory Sundays is being held at West Norwood library and Picture House. Please be reminded that you can book a free session here:

Online Safety Update

Online games can be a great way for children and young people to keep busy and stay in touch with friends and family, but it's important that they play safely. Please use the link below for some wonderful advice on how to keep your child safe if they play games online.
