Football □Stop the ball with their feet □Pass the ball with the inside of their feet Animal Recipes □ Dribble the ball using their feet ☐ Engage independently in a group ☐ Make a standing tackle □Follow the models of adults ☐Shoot a stationary football □Develop confidence around food ☐Participate in a group game ☐See, smell, handle and taste a range of healthy food Music PE Feelings and Choices ☐Be able to classify feelings into different zones Life Skills of emotions ☐Use a common language to refer to the feelings of self and others All Sorts of ☐Know how their behaviour affects others Animals Social Understanding and Relationships Meaningful interactions with peers PSHE/SoCo Shared enjoyment of an activity Humanities Science Art and Animals and their Habitats Design

Carrnival of the Animals

Musical terminology

English

Maths

- Explore how sounds are made
- Learn about the orchestra

Key Stage 2 Summer 1, 2021

Reading: sight words, phonics, reading scheme

One Day on our Blue Planet: The Savannah

- Responding to a text through drama, music, dance and
- Information texts
- Non-fiction books

Number-Place Value, Multiplication, Division, Position, Direction and Movement

- number and counting and exploring numbers through the topic of 'All Sorts of Animals'.
- fractions.
- position, direction and movement through practical activities.
- Use and apply their maths skills

- habitat and environment variations
- animals adaptations to environmental changes in their habitats
- food chains
- animals as predators and prey.

Tinga Tinga

- Tanzanian artist, Edward Salaringatinga
- painting techniques and styles project and develop their work each week
- •Paint and create two larger pieces of art through combining four smaller pieces of art.

Geography - African Savannah

- Africa, the savannah and a range of African animals.
- · features of animals through fact files and creative exploration.
- Explore how animals across the world can differ by applying to their own understanding (pets and animals in the UK).