Dear Parent

Welcome to a new term. It has been lovely to see all of the children over the last few days. They are looking very smart and we have been very impressed at how well they have settled back into school.

I am writing to inform you that, after fourteen years as the head teacher of Springfield Primary Academy, and just over thirty years working in education, I will be retiring at Christmas.

Throughout my career I have been very fortunate to work with some wonderful people, none more so than here at Springfield. It has been a privilege to lead such an amazing school, but it is now time to take a step back.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my time at Springfield. It has been brilliant to see so many children grow and mature over their time with us and it has been a great pleasure to contribute to this during my time here.

A recruitment process for Springfield's new head teacher will now take place, led by the trust. This can be a time of uncertainty, however, we have a strong team in place that will ensure stability as we make the transition.

Thank you for your continuing support and I look forward to working with you over the coming term.

Yours faithfully

Andy Willett
