Project Synopsis: Our project is art based. We will be studying Inuit artists and art. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• We will learn about the land use and natural resources of the Arctic region.</li><li>• We will learn about the culture and daily life of the Inuit community and comparing it to our own.</li><li>• We will learn about the how climate and landscape affect the daily life of the Inuit people.</li><li>• We will be studying Inuit art and learning about famous Inuit artists and their work and then creating our own Arctic animal designs.</li></ul>	Curriculum opportunities:  Writing We will write a persuasive letter, a biography and a story. Reading We will read biographies (Inuit artists) and compilation texts as part of our Bug Club guided reading. Maths Comparing data of population, land mass and temperatures of countries around the world. We will be looking at area in connection with land use. Music We will be exploring shape as part of our artwork – manipulating designs by reflecting and rotating (symmetry) scaling and tessellating. RE We will be looking at Hinduism and discovering which countries have the largest and smallest amount of practicing Hindus. Computing We will be developing our coding skills by solving problems by de-constructing codes. Safeguarding We will be thinking about how to look after ourselves and considering how to keep our minds and bodies healthy (diet, drugs, alcohol, managing stress)	Project Enhancements:  Y6 children will be taking part in some first aid training with a member of the Red Cross.  Y5 Residential to YHA Castleton – Alex Rider Mission (based on Storm Breaker by Anthony Horowitz)
Project Outcomes: At the end of the Spring term the children will be using all of their skills and knowledge to write a letter to Boris Johnson about climate change.		How can you help? We have sent out a ‘Knowledge Organiser’ detailing many of the background points for our topic. Please could you read this with your children and help them to do any additional research they may require.  We have, as usual, sent out a homework menu in the pink homework books.  If you feel you could help with our topic in any way, we would love to hear from you.
