

During the Victorian
period, towns got pumped water
and electricity.

Many people were farmers or had no jobs.

All children
have to go to school. It is the law.

Cut out these speech bubbles and
match them to one of the Image
Cards.

There are now
more shops and travel options.

Food had to be eaten quickly so
it didn't go
bad.

Tudor
houses were made with wooden frames
and sticks.
