

Growing Plants

End of Unit
Quiz!!!

1. Which of these do we NOT normally use seeds for?

Feeding animals.

Feeding ourselves.

Growing garden plants.

Making clothing.

That's not right! Let's
go back and try again.

1. Which of these do we NOT normally use seeds for?

Did you get it right? Next question...

Feeding animals.

Feeding ourselves.

Growing garden plants.

Making clothing.

2. Bulbs store food for plants like daffodils, which flower in spring. Why do they need a store of food?

They are very hungry plants!

So they can give food to other plants.

To survive and grow in the cold ground during winter.

So they can grow big flowers.

That's not right! Let's
go back and try again.

2. Bulbs store food for plants like daffodils, which flower in spring. Why do they need a store of food?

Did you get it right? Next question...

They are very hungry plants!

So they can give food to other plants.

To survive and grow in the cold ground during winter.

So they can grow big flowers.

3. What is a fruit?

The part of the plant which holds it upright.

The part of the plant which carries the seeds.

The part of the plant which grows into the ground.

The top part of a plant.

That's not right! Let's
go back and try again.

3. What is a fruit?

Did you get it right? Next question...

The part of the plant which holds it upright.

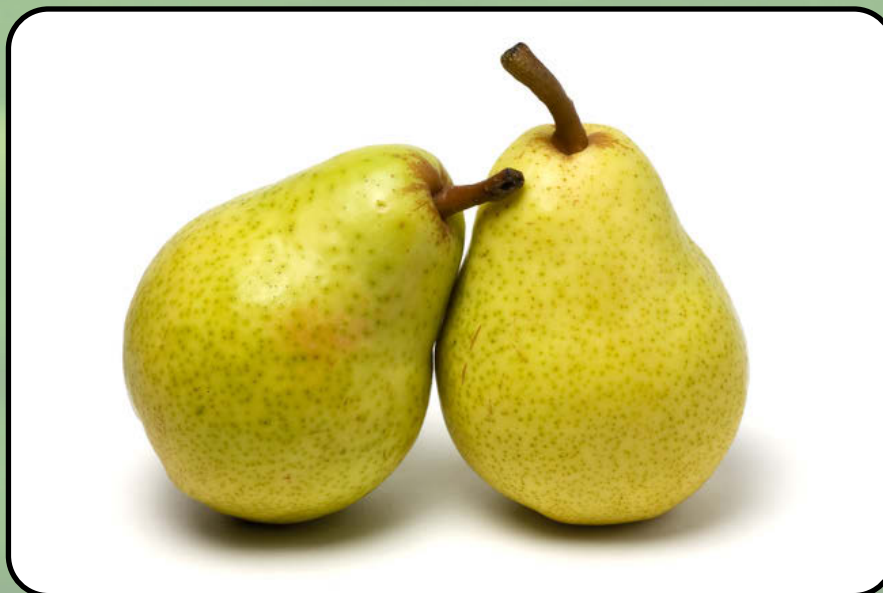

The part of the plant which carries the seeds.

The part of the plant which grows into the ground.

The top part of a plant.

4. Which picture does NOT show fruit?

That's not right! Let's
go back and try again.

4. Which picture does NOT show fruit?

Did you get it right? Next question...

5. How do dandelions disperse their seeds?

The wind carries the seeds away.

Animals bury the seeds.

The seeds stick to animal fur.

The seeds are eaten by birds.

That's not right! Let's
go back and try again.

5. How do dandelions disperse their seeds?

Did you get it right? Next question...

The wind carries the seeds away.

Animals bury the seeds.

The seeds stick to animal fur.

The seeds are eaten by birds.

6. What happens when a seed germinates?

It rots away.

It starts to grow and produce shoots.

It turns into a flower.

It turns into a bulb.

That's not right! Let's
go back and try again.

6. What happens when a seed germinates?

Did you get it right? Next question...

It rots away.

It starts to grow and produce shoots.

It turns into a flower.

It turns into a bulb.

7. True or False: Bulbs usually grow above the ground.

TRUE

FALSE

That's not right! Let's
go back and try again.

7. True or False: Bulbs usually grow above the ground.

Did you get it right? LAST question...

TRUE

FALSE

8. True or False: Seeds usually grow best in very dry places.

TRUE

FALSE

That's not right! Let's
go back and try again.

8. True or False: Seeds usually grow best in very dry places.

Did you get it right? Well done, everyone!

TRUE

FALSE

