

A vertical, winding road illustration on the left side of the slide. It features a yellow car at the top, followed by a black car, a red car, and another black car further down. The road has white dashed lines, pedestrian crossings, and various road signs including a blue square sign with a white pedestrian symbol and red-and-white striped barriers. Small green trees are scattered along the roadside.

Life in the City

Today we will be:

Exploring the human features of Edinburgh and Cape Town.

A vertical, winding road illustration on the right side of the slide, mirroring the one on the left. It features a yellow car at the top, followed by a black car, a red car, and another black car further down. The road has white dashed lines, pedestrian crossings, and various road signs including a blue square sign with a white pedestrian symbol and red-and-white striped barriers. Small green trees are scattered along the roadside.

Next

Can you remember where Edinburgh and Cape Town are?
Which countries would you find them in?

Are they capital cities?

Back

Next

Look! Here they are on the world map.

Edinburgh is the capital of Scotland.

Cape Town is the capital of South Africa.

Back

Next

Can you remember some of the physical features you found in Cape Town and Edinburgh?

Think, pair, share

Today we are going to look at some human features found in these cities.

Back

Next

What are human features of a city?

Think, pair, share

Back

Next

Let's read these
“What am I?”
statements together.

Can you guess what the human features are?

Back

Next

What am I?

I am very tall.

I am made out of steel and metal.

I have windows.

I have automatic doors.

Back

Next

I am a building!

Back

Next

What am I?

I am very hard.

I am made out of gravel and tarmac.

I have white markings.

Cars drive on me.

Back

Next

I am a road!

Back

Next

What am I?

I am square shaped.

I am made of bricks.

I have windows.

Computers can be found inside me.

Back

Next

I am an office!

Back

Next

What am I?

I am very large.

I have chimneys.

I have rounded towers.

Smoke sometimes leaves my chimney.

Back

Next

I am a factory!

Back

Next

What am I?

There are many of me in a city.
I sell things.
I have windows and doors.
I have displays.

Back

Next

I am a shop!

Back

Next

You can find all of these human features in Edinburgh and Cape Town.

Let's look at some more human features specific to each city.

Back

Next

Cable car

Harbour

Bridge

Government House

Buildings

Stadium

Factory

Cape Town

Back

Next

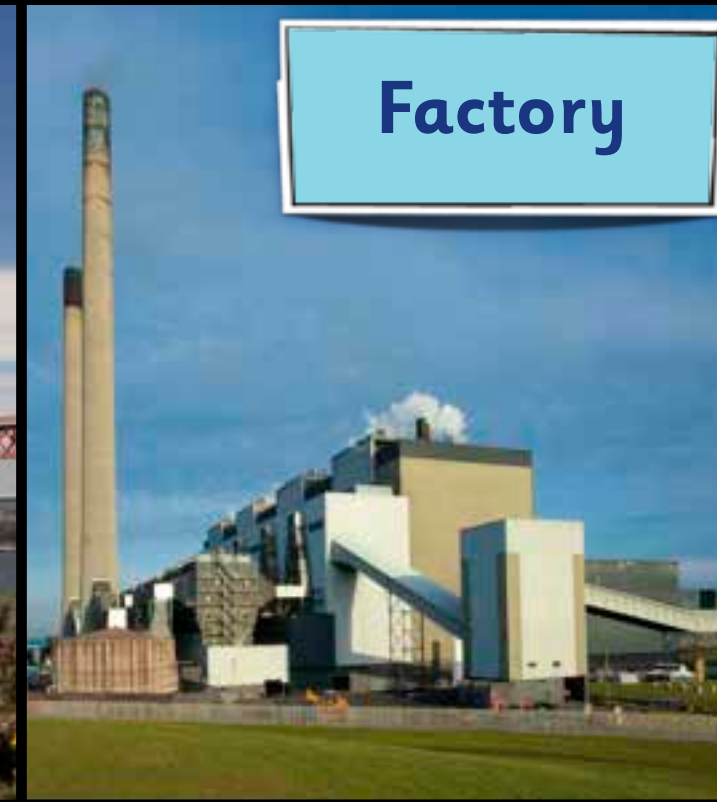

Castle

Bridge

Factory

Church

Buildings

Harbour

Parliament House

Edinburgh

Back

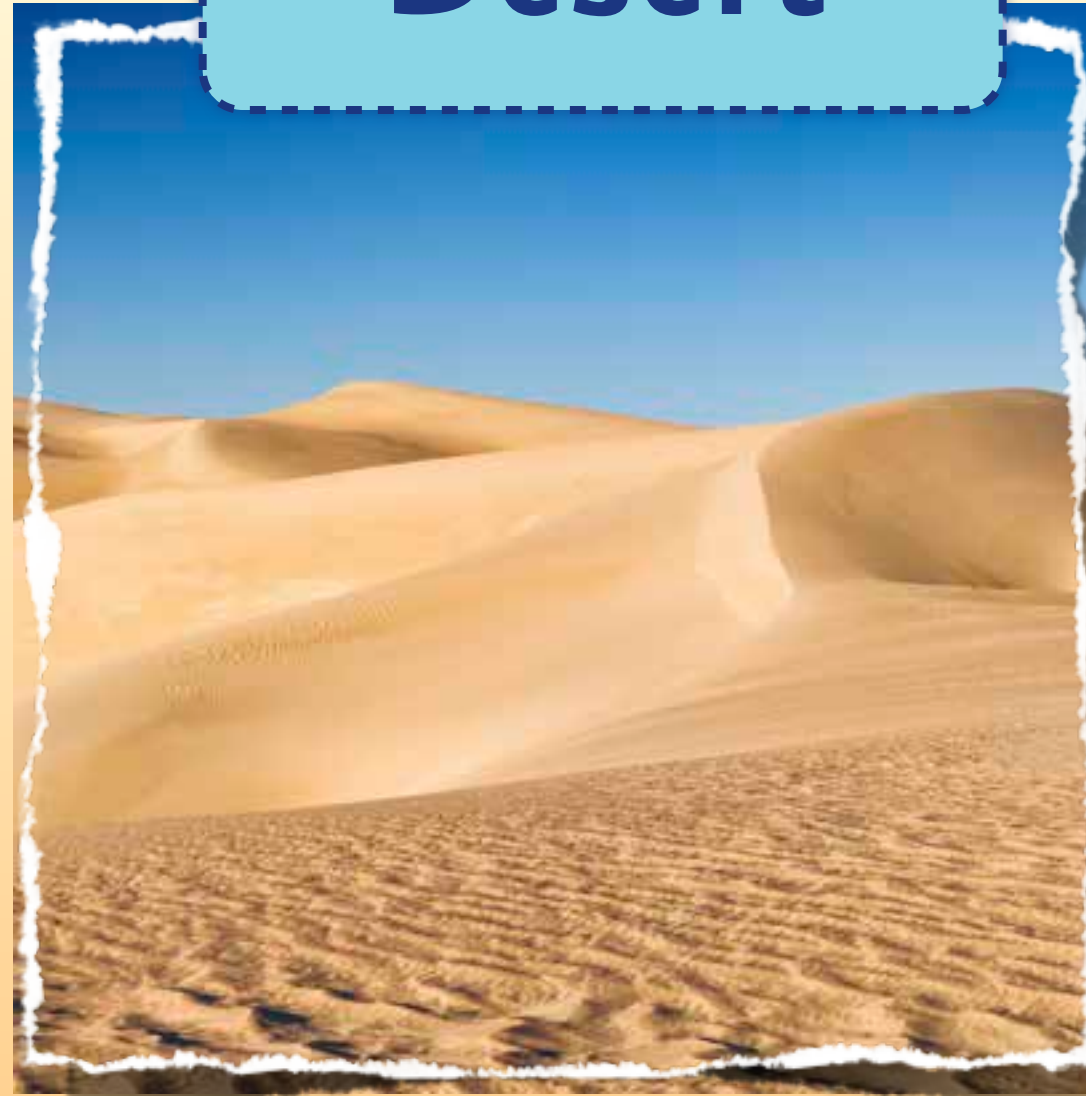

Next

Plenary

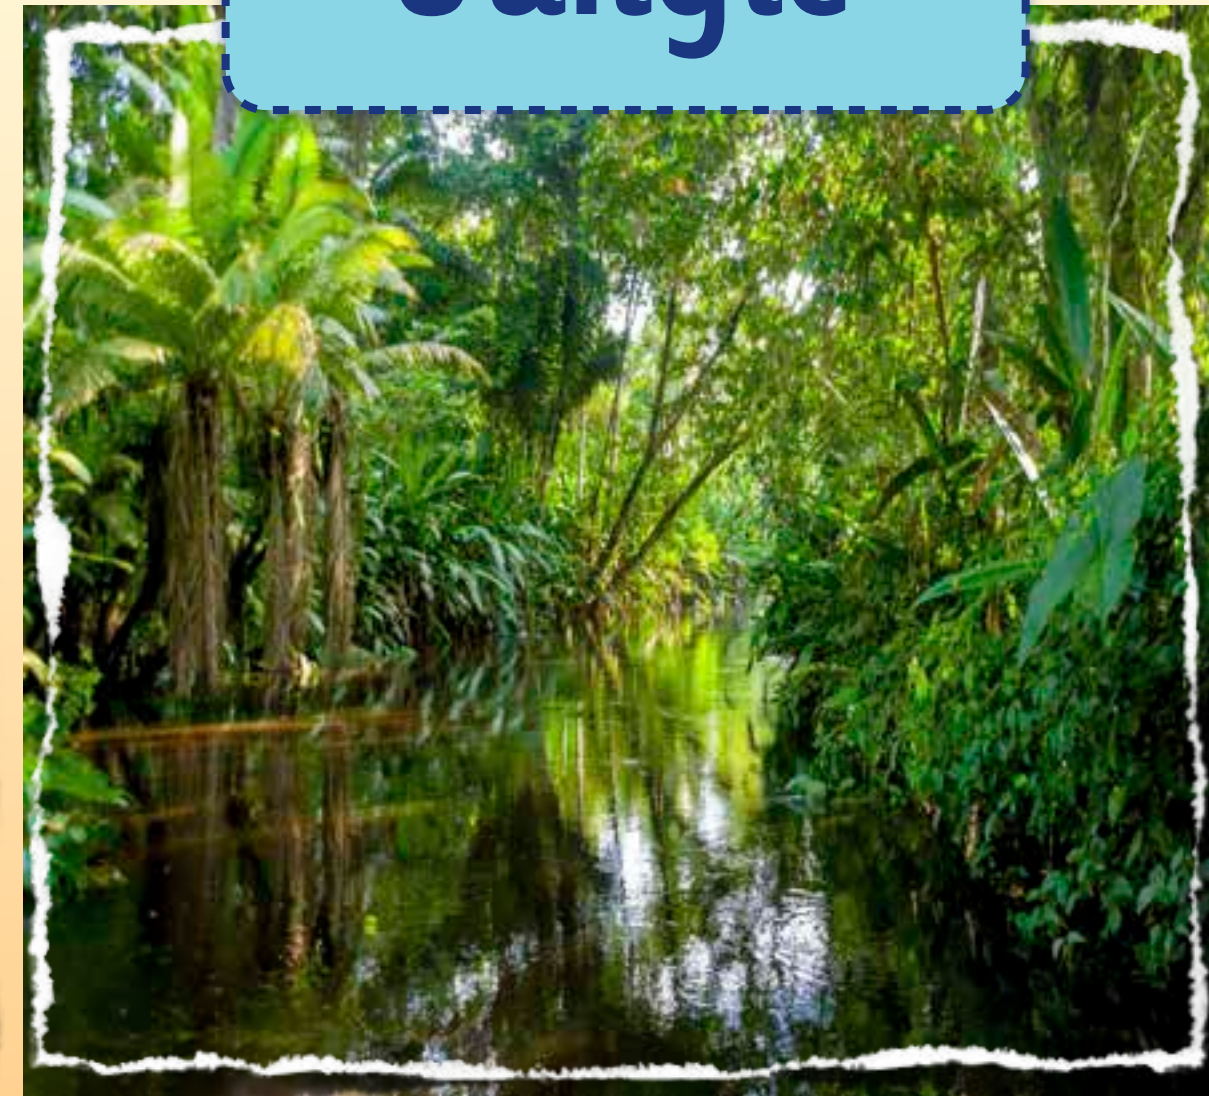

What human features would you find in these environments?

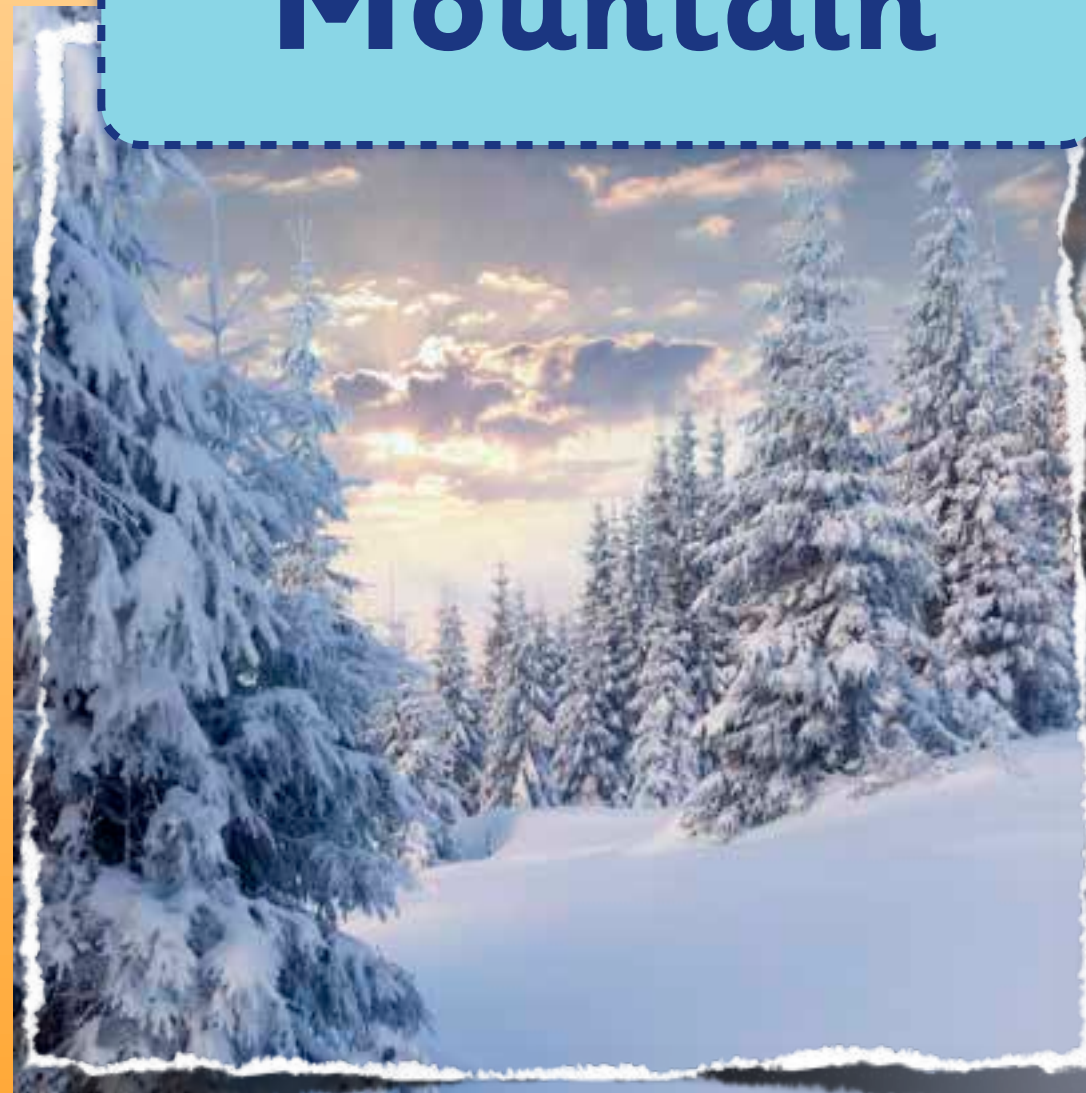

Desert

Jungle

Mountain

Island

Back