Moving to Secondary School 17th June 2020

A FREE seminar for staff working with pupils who are moving from Year 6 to Year 7

This session aims to link staff in primary and secondary schools to identify how they can work effectively together to ensure a smooth and successful transition for pupils both before and after their move to Year 7. The session will cover the following:

- Personalising transition
- AET standards and competencies that support transition
- The 4 areas of difference in children and young people
- Anxiety and Psychological functions
- Working with parents
