

Head Teacher's Message

It has been another busy week this week. I asked the children their highlights this week: Year 6 have been out to Croydon Fire Station. Reception have enjoyed their Phonics this week. Year 5 have been writing persuasive letters and Year 4 have been writing 'Wanted' posters. Year 2 have been learning about Pictograms, Year 1 have enjoyed their work on shape and Year 3 have enjoyed coding in computing.

With Book week around the corner, our Year 4 pupils will be adding their book reviews to our weekly newsletter. This week we have James, Jasmine and Emily.

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Hughes

St. Aidan's School Value this term: Respect

This half term our school value is 'respect'. Our School Councillors and Prayer Leaders have been looking out for children giving examples of showing respect this week.

Leonardo for always having a smile on his face and a positive attitude.

Shiloh for being kind and respectful to the teachers.

Ayda for listening to her classmates.

Owen S for helping his friends.

Respect

Sensory Room

Introducing our brand new sensory room. We would like to say a heartfelt thankyou to Coulsdon & District Day Nursery Fund. Thanks to their kindness we have a brand new sensory room. This room will be a valuable and calming space for so many of our children. Thank you for your generosity.

A huge, huge thank you to Elaine, Robert and Christopher for their generosity. We are blown away by their kindness and the children of St. Aidan's will forever be grateful.

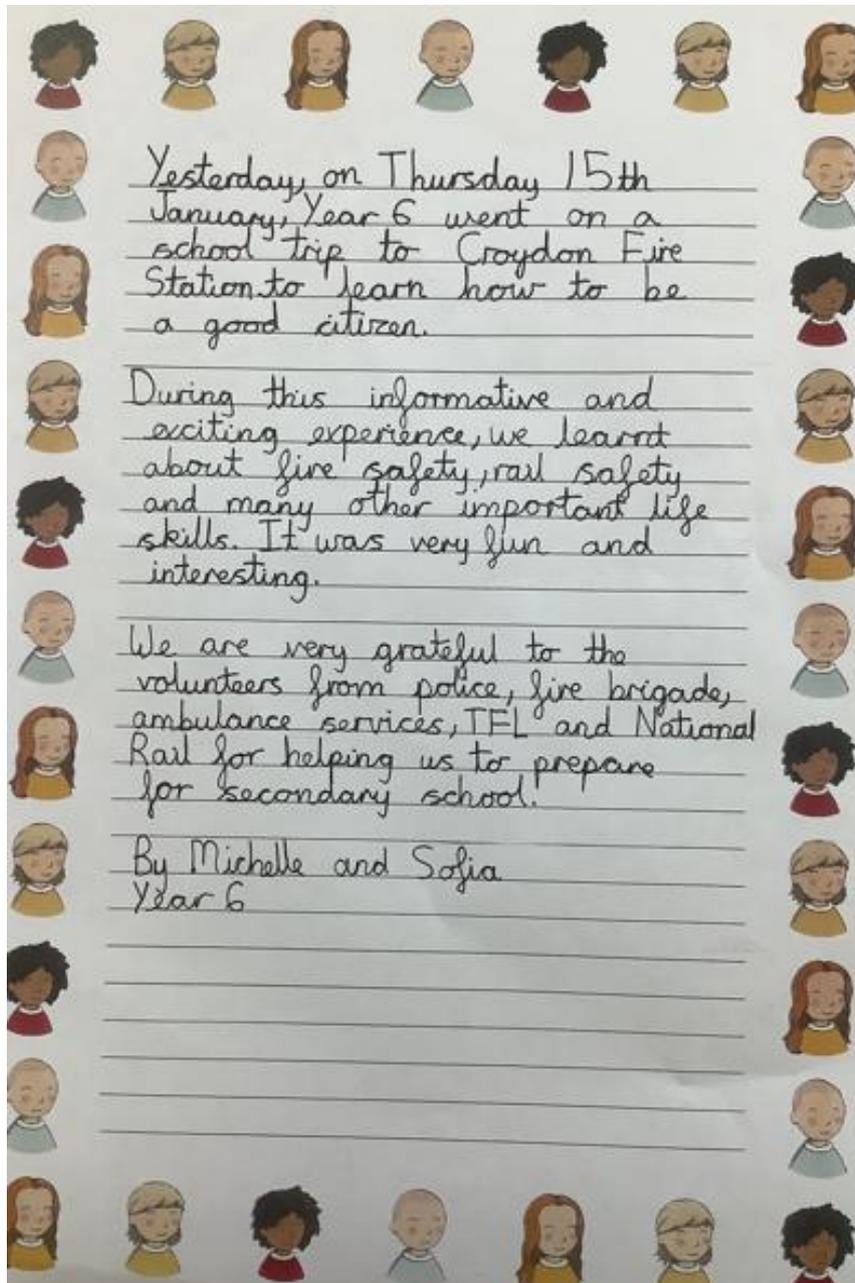

School Council meeting with SASA

Our School Council met with SASA this afternoon with a very long wish list of ideas they would like.

Some of these ideas included: fixed outdoor table tennis tables, class set of laptops, new PE equipment, the field re-turfed and new Bibles.
