Dear Children,

Welcome back to St Aidan's! I hope that you are excited to begin learning in your new class. So many exciting things await you this year - new topics, new books, trips, visitors...

If you take each day as a new opportunity and start afresh you will learn so much.

Good luck!

I have faith that all the adults in our school will do all they can for everyone of our children in our school as individuals formed in the image and likeness of God.
