

Year 1 - The Great Fire of London - Knowledge Map

Why was The Great Fire of London a significant event?

The Great Fire of London began at Pudding Lane belonging to Thomas Farriner.

2/09/1666

On Tuesday, St Paul's Cathedral was destroyed by the fire.

4/09/1666

5/09/1666

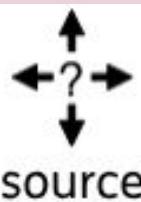

On Thursday the 6th September the fire was put out.

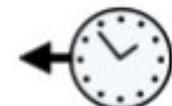

6/09/1666

It soon spread, this next day, people began to carry their possessions to safety across the River Thames.

On Wednesday, the winds that had helped the fire spread began to die down.

bakery

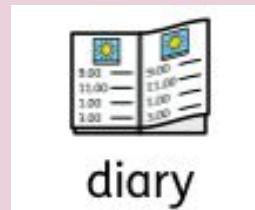

past

© Focus Edu

monument

diary

flammable