The Wonders of God's Love (Based mainly on Isaiah 5:8-24)

When a group of children are together occasionally one of them turns to another, points accusingly at them and says, "You're in trouble!" Usually there's no further explanation forthcoming but the eyes of the rest of the group turn towards the child in the spotlight. They either respond by protesting their innocence or looking at their feet and turning bright red. Both of these responses indicate that they are fully aware of why the initial comment was made. Towards the start of Isaiah's prophecy the phrase, "You're in trouble" is repeated several times. The comment is addressed to the people of Israel. In case they are not sure why they are in trouble with God the issues are itemised. They included the adverse impact of drinking an excess of alcohol, the pursuit of criminal activity, disregard of the marginalised, rampant corruption and being ego-centric! You may spot that all these matters are still issues today. People obviously don't recognise the seriousness of the situation because they ask God to hasten His work. They seem to assume that this will be beneficial to them, which of course it isn't. The season of Advent which occupies much of December is a time when we can reflect on behaviour patterns and how God views them.

We are aware that December ends with the season of Christmas. If we jump forward a couple of chapters in Isaiah's prophecy we find references to Jesus' birth, which was necessary because of the behaviour patterns touched on earlier. Jesus is Immanuel-"God with us". Isaiah 7:14 speaks of "A virgin who gives birth to a Son and will call Him Immanuel". Then, Isaiah 9:6 explains a bit more about this Child who will be "Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace!" Christmas is often called "The most wonderful time of the year". For me, this is because, through Jesus' birth the Lord Almighty brings justice and a second chance to us. There is no better reason to celebrate. Jesus alone is worthy of our praise. As it says in the last verse of "Joy to the World", "He rules the world with truth and grace and makes the nations prove the glories of His righteousness and the wonders of His love!"

Every Blessing Cath

CHRISTMAS FAIR

What a good day, lots of stalls filled with goodies, lots of customers, but also lots of hard work by many. We owe such a debt to you all who set up, those who manned the stalls, those who provided goods and those who cleared up, but most of all to Elaine, with the help of Jeff, who worked her socks off both before, during and after the sale, thank you. Just one slight down side we could have done with much more help, where were you? We raised over £900 well done.
