
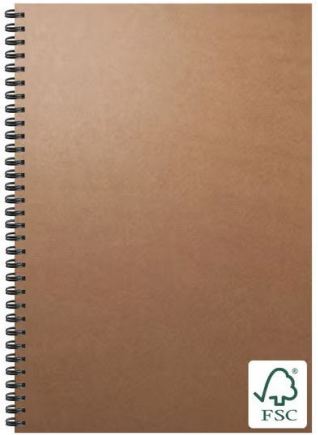
Talk on Tuesday PSHE



What does it stand for?

thrive

Why do we learn about it?

To improve and learn about:
- physical and mental wellbeing
- social and emotional skills
- learn about safety
- relationships
- rights and responsibilities

What is PSHE?

PSHE stands for Personal, Social, Health and Economic education.

When do we do these lessons?

Once a week for 45 minutes.

Where do we record our work?

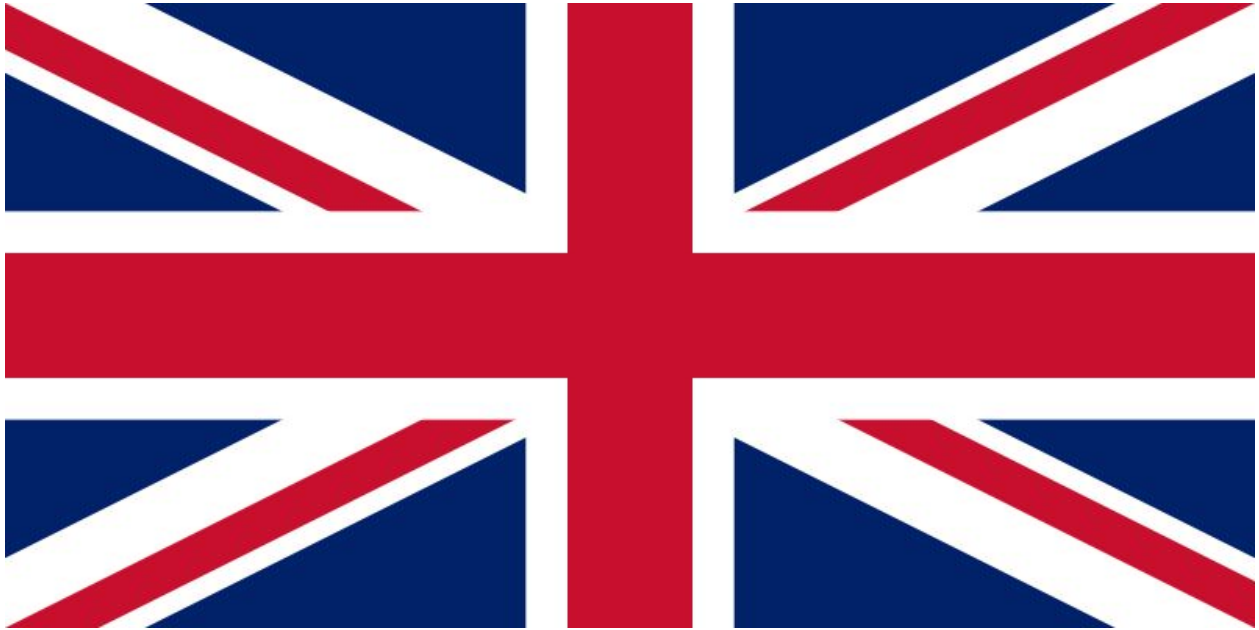
Every week in our PSHE floorbook.
In our science books.

What does SCARF stand for?

We have one lesson per week of PSHE.
We use SCARF to learn all about PSHE.

Did you get them all correct?

What are British Values?



Picture News
Rule of Law
•I value and understand the importance of rules and laws
•I follow school rules and understand why there is a consequence if I do not
•I understand that everybody is responsible for rules and laws
•I know rules are there to protect me
What do I do if I don't think something is right or fair?
Mutual Respect and Tolerance
•I know my behaviour, actions and words can affect others
•I understand and respect that not everyone is the same as me and everyone needs to be treated as an individual
•I know that life is not the same for everyone
•I understand that people's faiths and beliefs are different, and I respect that
Can I be friends with someone who doesn't believe the same things that I do?
What matters to me?
Our Shared British Values
I Really Do Matter
Individual Liberty
•I make the right choices
•I take responsibility for my actions
•I understand the consequences of my actions
•I manage risks
•I know how to exercise my rights and freedoms in an appropriate way
How can I make a difference?
How can my voice be heard?
Democracy
•I know I have a voice and my opinions will be heard
•I can listen carefully to others
•I know how to discuss an issue in a calm way and can show respect for others even if I disagree
•My vote counts

What did you think?

'The song you heard - 'A change is gonna come' - is a song from the 1960s about the need to change unfair laws in America at that time.

- The rule of the law

In Britain we have a police force who make sure people do not do the wrong thing and break the law – this means that we are safe.

British Values

Rule of Law

Many countries have laws which state education is compulsory for all children. In the UK, we have laws in place to ensure education is inclusive and available to everyone.

'The rules we make keep us safe and help us live and learn. Without them, life would be unfair.

I think that rules are there to…

I think life would be fair/unfair without rules because..
