Hello,

Dear George, my name is ANSU Sagne I am 13 years old, I live with my parents my mum Dad and brothers namely Abdoullie, Aboubacarr and I I go to a school called Brikama Lower Basic school. I am in year five.

Life in The Gambia is normal and it is the smiling coast of west Africa. It is a very small country with a population less than two million with different cultures.

I like reading my Books and playing football with my friends. on Saturday and Sunday. I did not go to school I stay at home and play with my friends

Thank you George I wish you all the best
