

Year 6- Term 5 - Extreme Earth, homework, challenges and home learning

Weekly Homework: These tasks are expected to be completed weekly and are not optional.

Spelling: Please see the spellings on Purple Mash. This will be set on a Friday and are tested the following Friday.

Reading: Please read at home daily and bring your reading book in with you every day.

Homework: Please complete the tasks set on Purple Mash. These will be set on a Friday and are due in the following Friday at the latest.

You may choose any of the following activities below in addition to your weekly homework task if you would like to. Challenge yourself! Can you Complete at least one spicy activity? We will celebrate your wonderful work at the end of term!

| | English | Maths | History | Science: | DT |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|
| Mild  | Get reading lots of different texts: from newspapers, magazines to fiction books, comics; website articles to even challenging yourself and reading journals. | Practice your times tables on Hit the Button Hit the Button | Research one of the key figures of the Suffragette Movement. Who were they, what did they do, what was life like for women during the 19th and 20th centuries? | Discover all the different materials in your house and make a list of all the surfaces you find which are either transparent, translucent or opaque. | Explore and research the types of food that were most popular in the late 19 th century and the early 20 th century, what differences can you see? |
| Hot  | Practice your SPaG on www.spagonline.com | Practice your fractions by building a fraction. Build a Fraction (colorado.edu) | Create your very own placard for a Suffragette rally. Get practicing your chants and slogans! | Can you use mirrors and reflective surfaces to bounce a torch beam of light off as many things as possible? What was the most you could achieve? | Recreate one of the dishes from this website Historical Recipes - Old Sturbridge Village (osv.org) |
| Spicy  | Write a front page for a newspaper describing the events of a fictional Suffragette rally. Make sure to follow closely the structure and features. Where possible show off your SPaG revision! | Create your own nets of 3D shapes and attempt to build something out of them. Let your imagination run wild! It can be anything from a tower to a house, to trees. | Explore the differences between feminism in the 1960s and 1970s and compare what life was like for women then to present day. What has changed, is it for better or worse? Write up your findings. | Create a shadow puppet show for your family! Get creative and see what crazy shadows you can produce! | Write down your favourite recipes you have found and create a recipe book of all the bakes and dishes you have made. |

If you have any questions please speak to your class teacher.