

The children have thought about how we can refuse, reuse, reduce and finally recycle to care for our common home. They have been supported by the PTA to hold a book swap. This helped raise awareness for the importance of recycling and the impact we can have on our world.

