

The school council children had spent time designing their Easter Garden and working with the local community shops and the local parishioners to create the Easter Garden.

