

The children in the Eco Club are working with the local community and the school to promote recycling. They took it upon themselves to plan an assembly to the school to make children aware of ways they can recycle and the impact it can have.

