

Inspired by Laudato Si' the children have really understood why it is important to reduce/reuse and the families in our community really value our pre-loved items in our pre-loved uniform shop. We know that we don't always need new items and that we are the stewards in caring for our common world by not creating lots of waste.

