Dear parent and carers of children in Class 5,

Mrs Bell has been the teacher in Class 5 since September 2023. She was appointed to this position as a long-term cover teacher for the maternity leave of Miss Banks. Miss Banks has informed the school that she wishes to return from her maternity leave and return to full time teaching after the Easter holidays. Therefore, after the Easter holidays Miss Banks will become the Class 5 teacher for the rest of the school year.

I would like to thank Mrs Bell for her commitment and dedication to our school. She has provided quality teaching and supportive pastoral care for our children during this period of time. I wish her every future happiness.

The transition from Mrs Bell to Miss Banks has already started. Meetings have taken to place to ensure all appropriate academic and personal information is communicated. Miss Banks will also attend the spring term Parents' Evening that will take place on Monday 11th March and Thursday 14th March alongside Mrs Bell. This will provide another opportunity for information share prior to Mrs Bell leaving St Anne's, whilst also providing an opportunity for parents to meet your child's new teacher.

Best wishes,

Mr P Bates
Headteacher

Headteacher: Mr P. Bates
Deputy Headteacher: Mrs G. Cleary
