Walk in the park
 I went to the park I saw a lady birds swans
 ducks and 5 squirrels.
 There were a lot of trees
 The leaves were red green and orange. Leaves on the ground made crunchy sound
 I could hear birds tweet
 I had lots of fun in the Park!

A ~~ALL~~ about Atherham and Miller Rock.

The public promenade dates back to 1697 when it was bought by Epsom Town for £15.

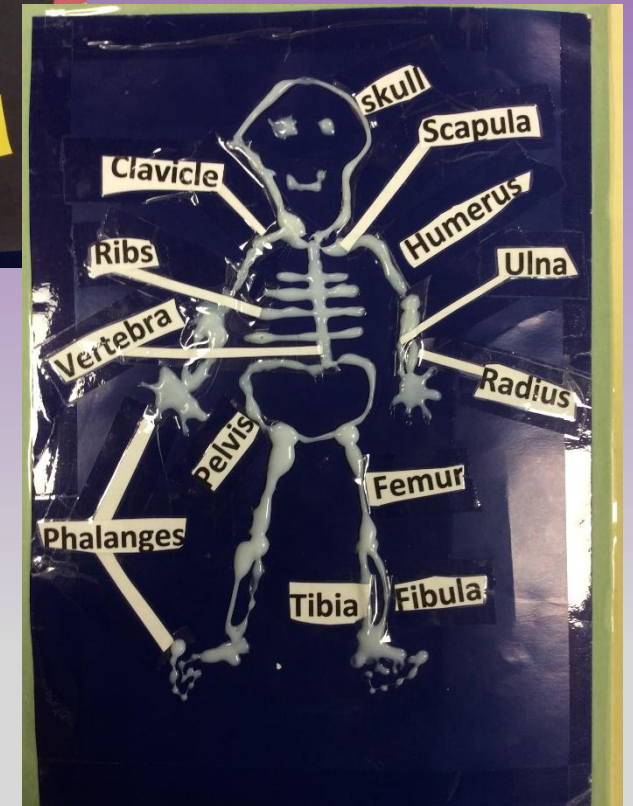

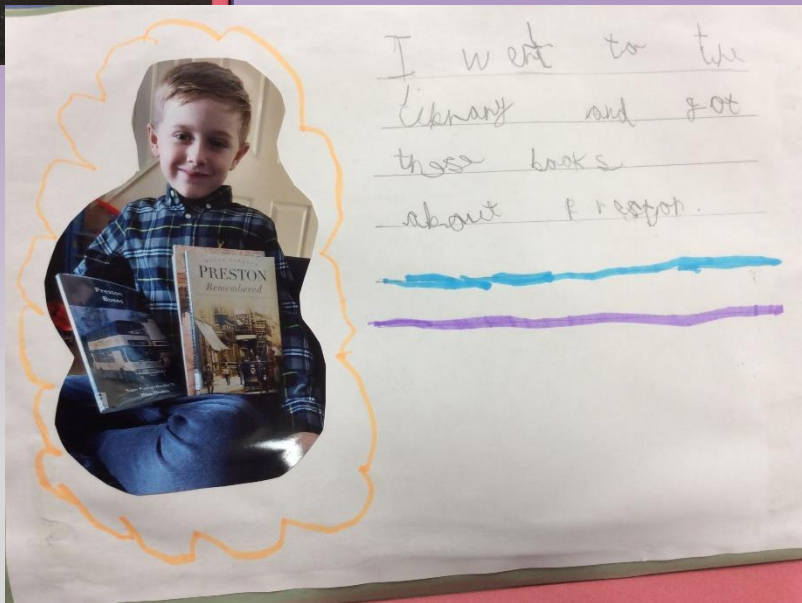

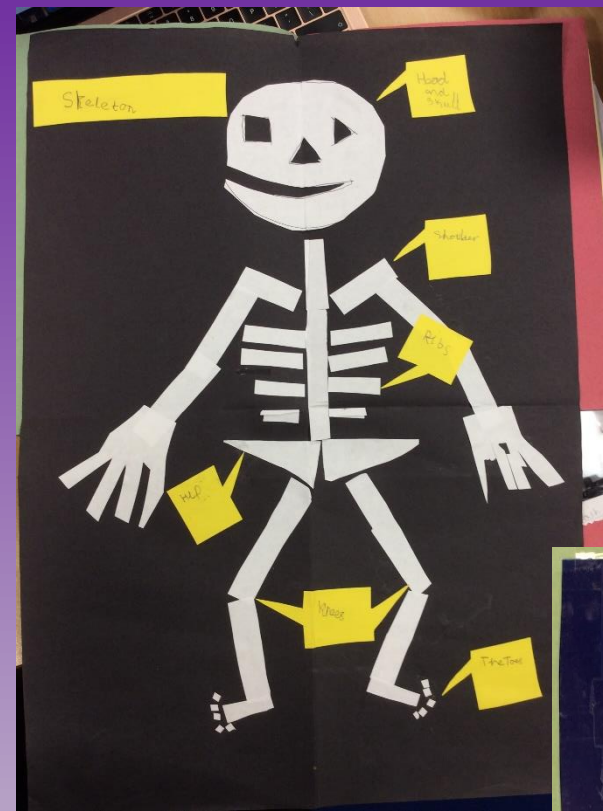

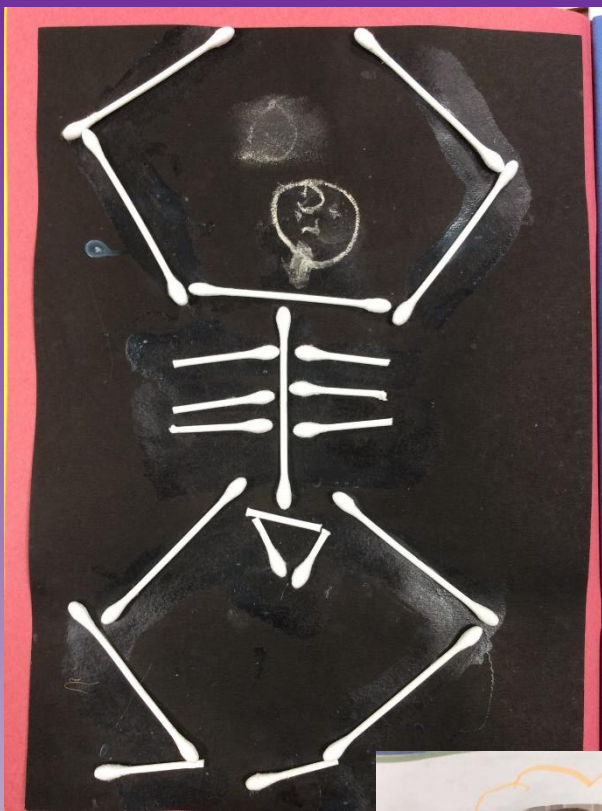

In 1800 the land had open plots of land that were used for grazing cattle.

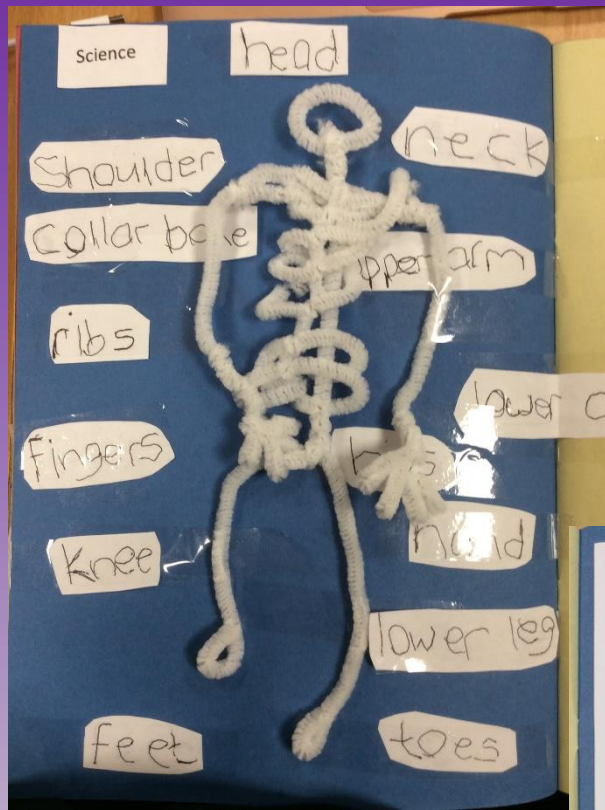

Between 1843 clearance & roads were created including lanes / gardens / footpaths and seating.

It has not been the same since then. It looks now to a long time ago. It looks so nice now because it has a lot of flowers and trees and plants. Now there are none of them but there were some.

History

The Blackburn Rovers club was formed in 1875...

The Blackburn Rovers club was formed in 1875 following a meeting on November 5th in the St. Leger Hotel on King William Street. The meeting was organised by two old boys of Shrewsbury school, John Lewis and Arthur Constantine. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the possibility of forming a football club to play under Association rules. Seventeen people attended the meeting, the majority of whom were Blackburn Grammar School old boys.

Freddie & Tony Mowbray

This patronage of the club by the educated middle classes was of vital importance. These men were at the heart of Blackburn's commercial life. Through their education and business acumen they were well placed to exploit the opportunities presented by the expansion of the fledgling game.

Rovers' first game, which took place at Church on December 11th 1875, was reported as follows in the December 18th edition of the Blackburn Times.

'On Saturday afternoon a football match was played at Church between members of the Rovers club, Blackburn and the Church club.

The ball was kicked off by the Blackburn captain at three o'clock and after some fine play lasting about thirty minutes, a goal was scored by Birtwistle, of the Blackburn club.

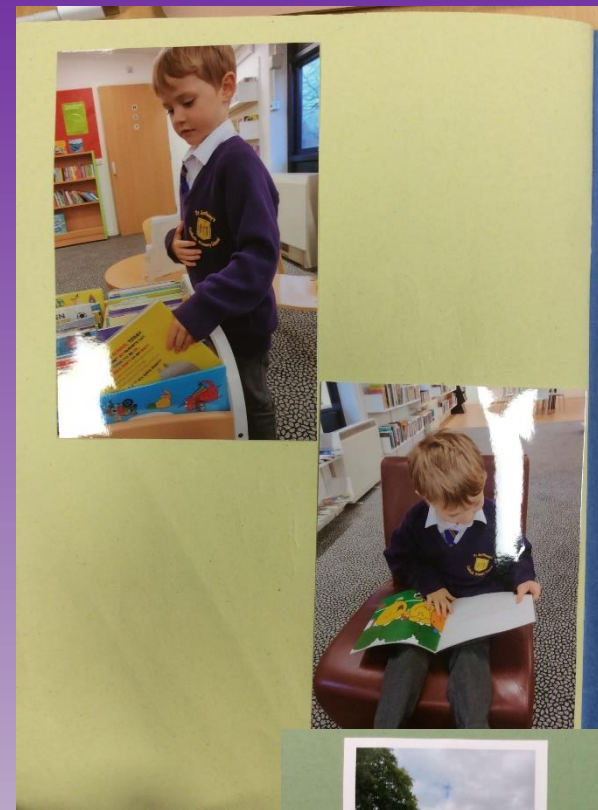

With a hard struggle the Church club succeeded in scoring the next goal and the game resulted in a tie.'

it smells of Frex
The dubs who sing:
I like to see
all the colours
of the leaves

my cousins are McKenzie
and Finley
I love them because they are silly and fun.

Autumn

Summer is gone and Autumn is here.

I like Autumn so I will cheer.

on bonfire night fire works go boom

on halloween I saw a witch on a broom.

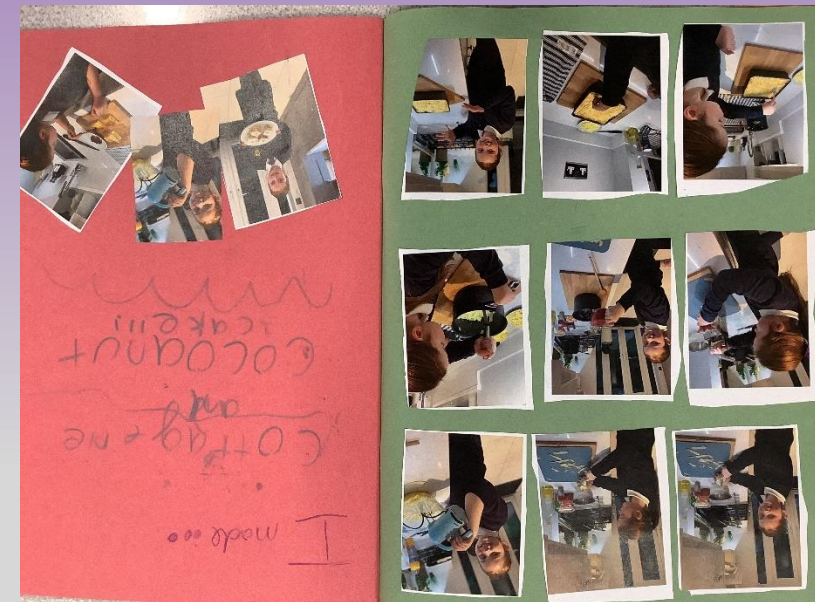

the days are getting cold and the leaves are getting old.

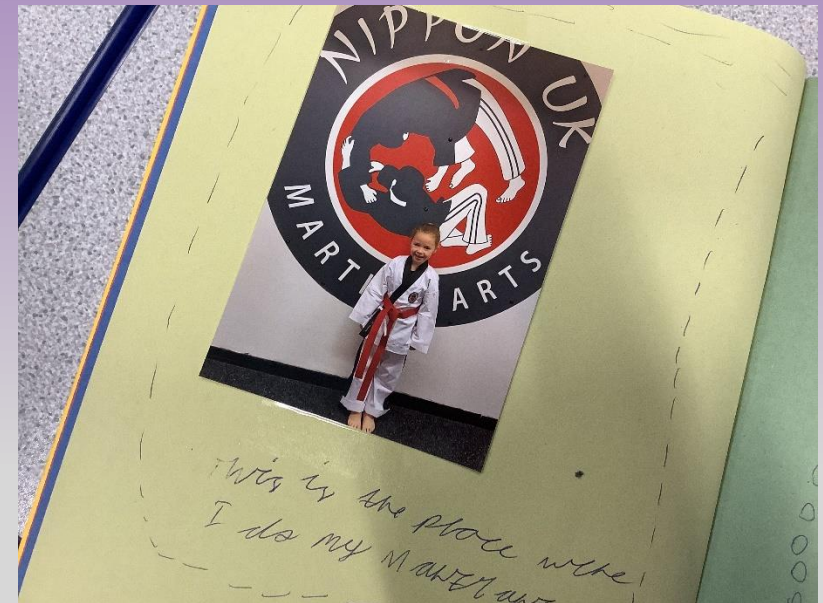

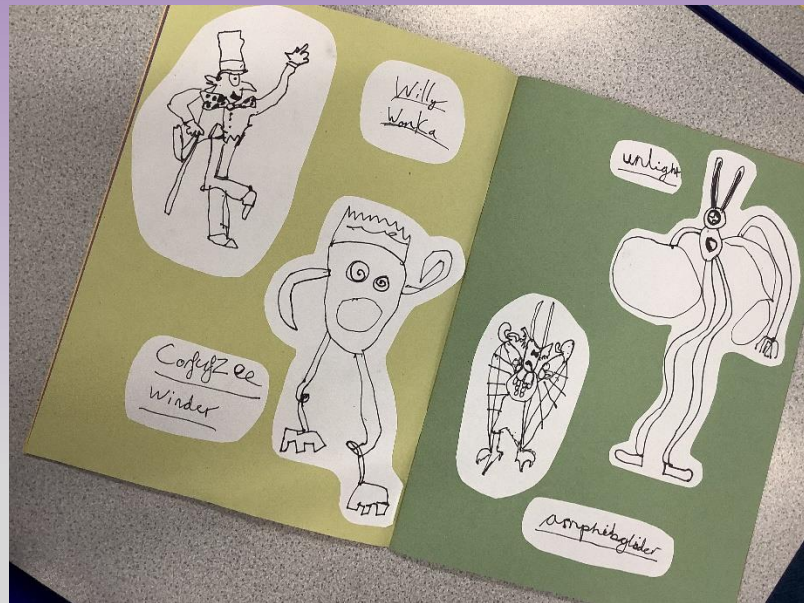

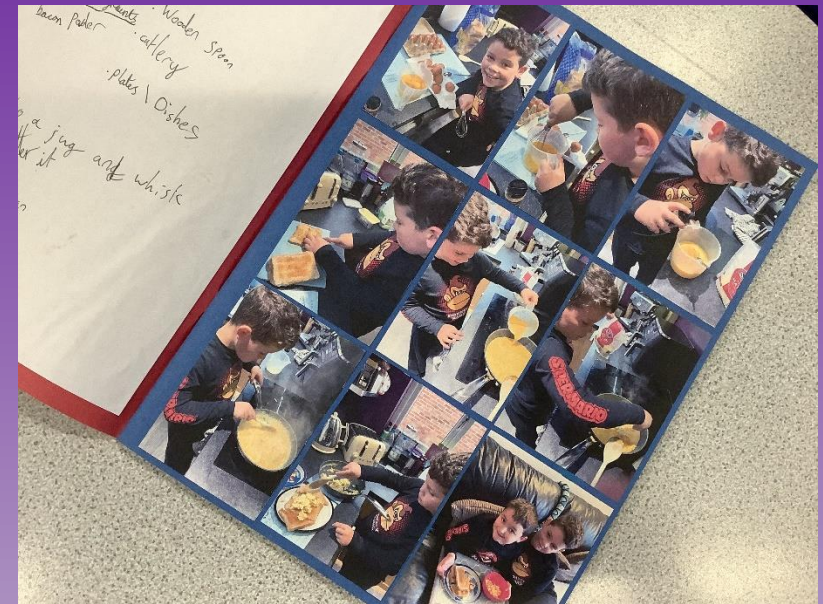

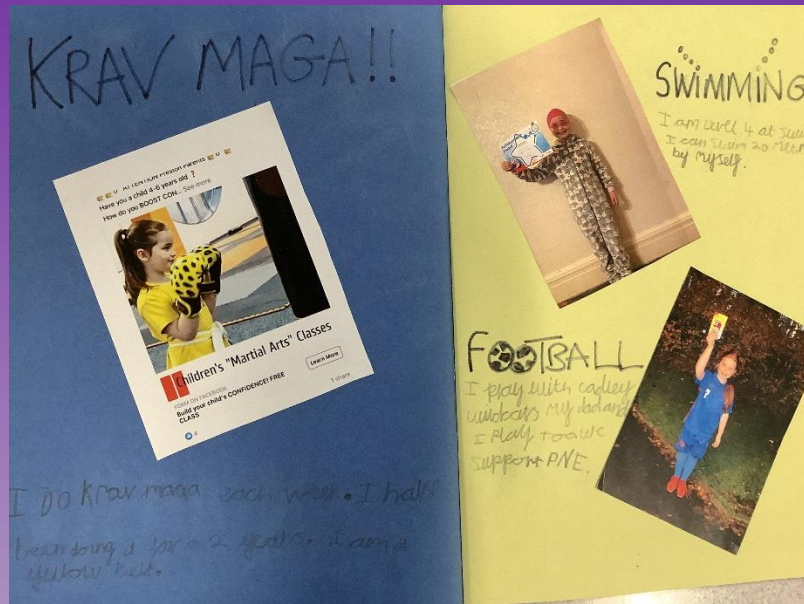

In autumn there is always a breeze.

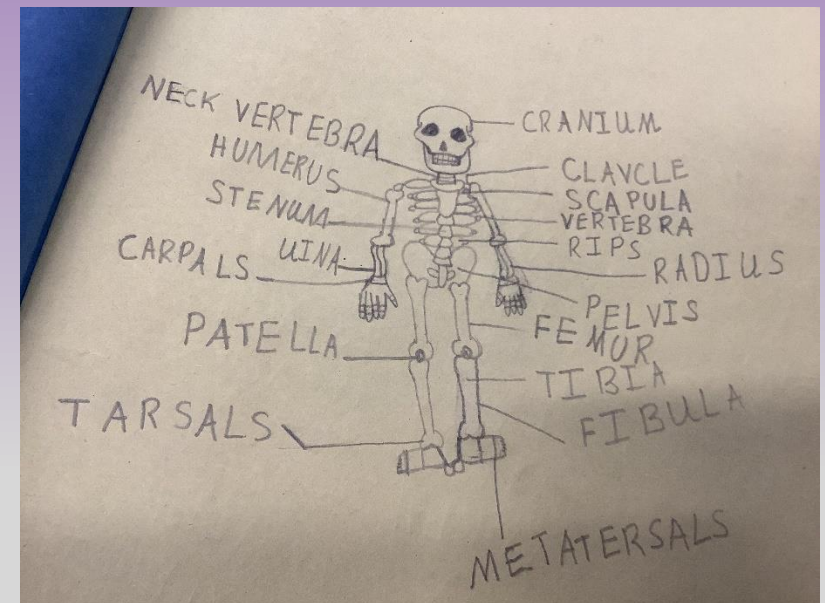

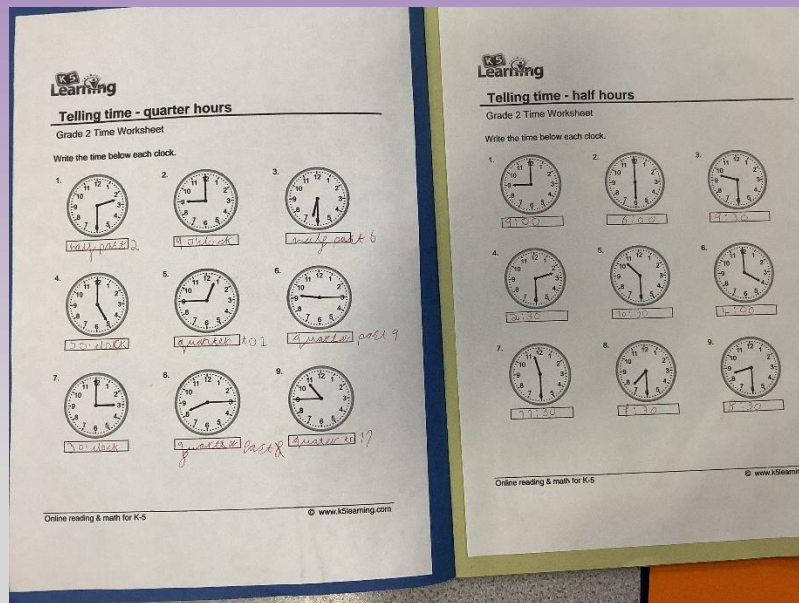

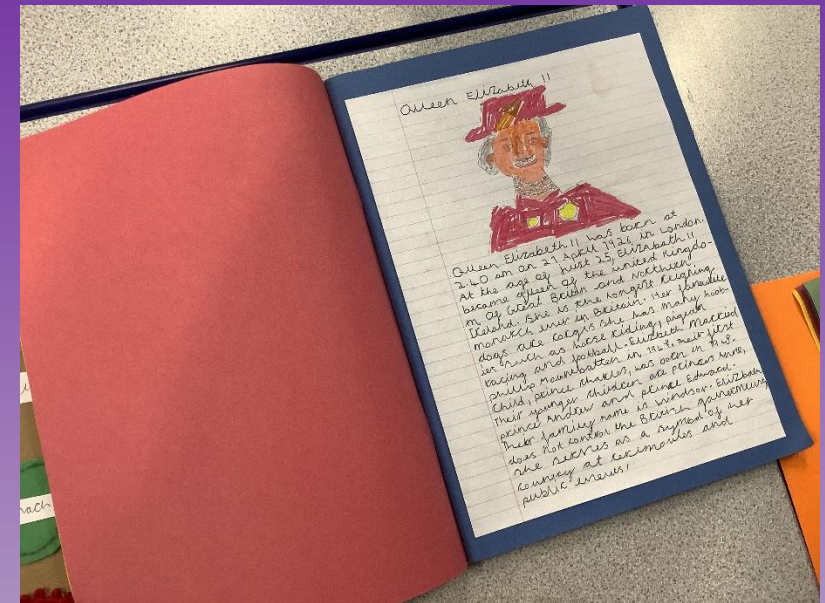

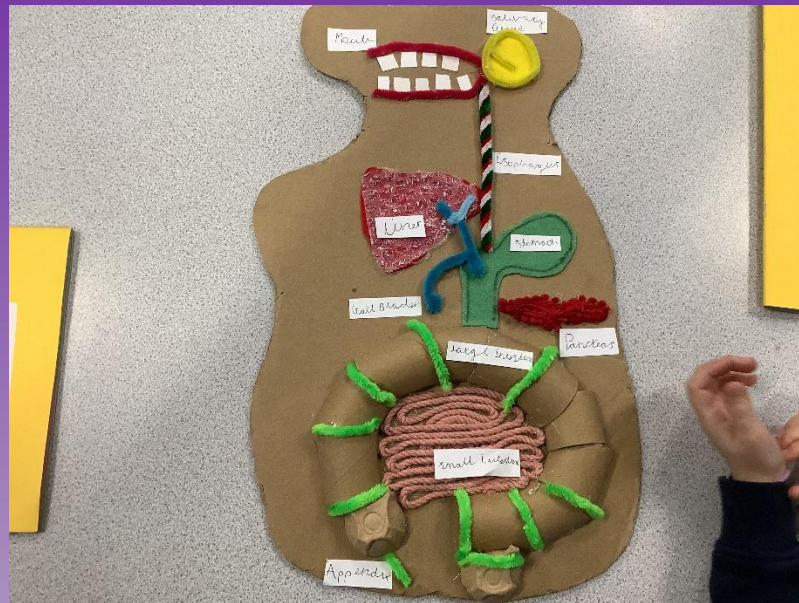

I hate to where my gloves or my hands will freeze.

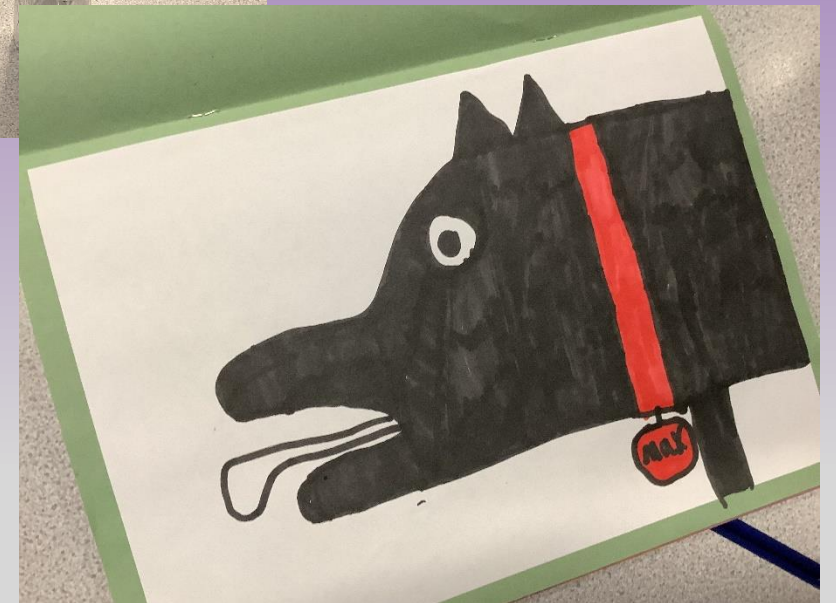

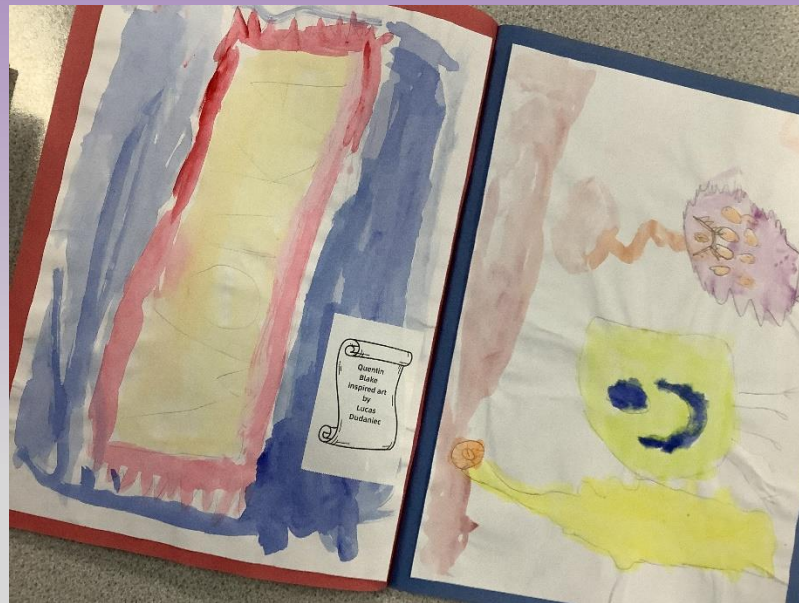

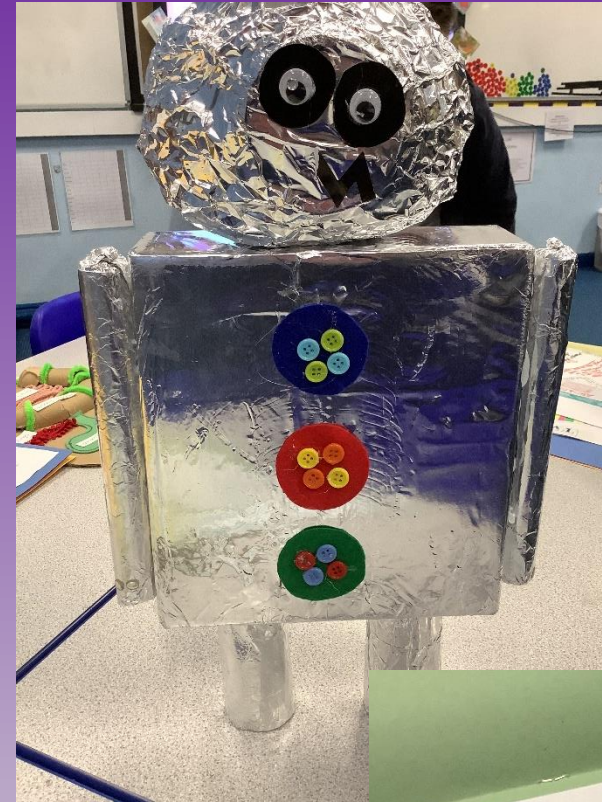

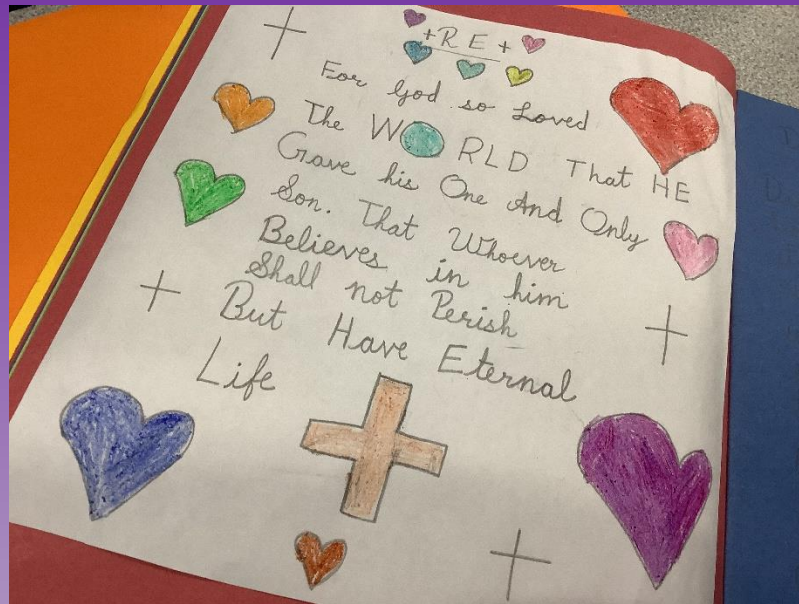

I like autumn the leaves go crunch

that Means I have to have soup for lunch.

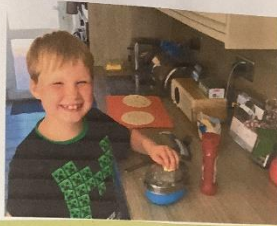

My vegetable soup
I eat at parks,
every and potatoes
myself my myself
myself.

My favourite snack is wrap with cheddar cheese and tomato ketchup.

Battle of Gull Suford

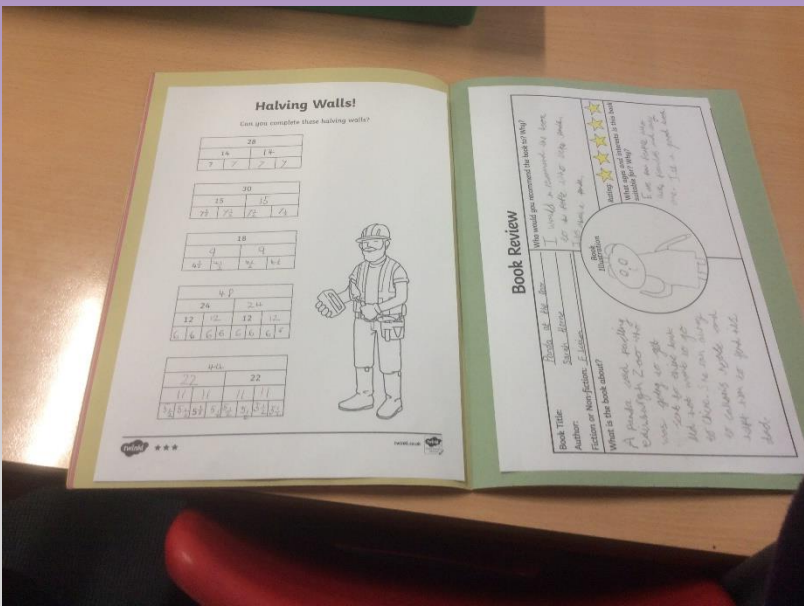

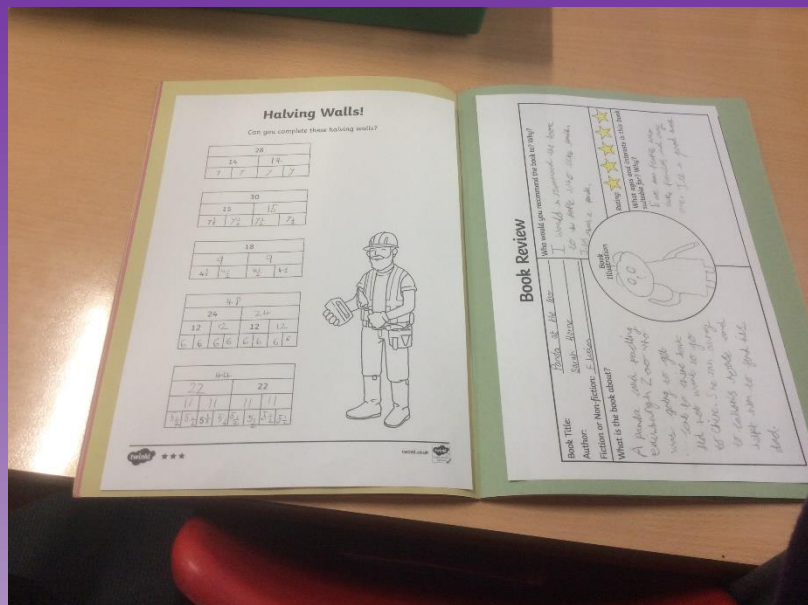

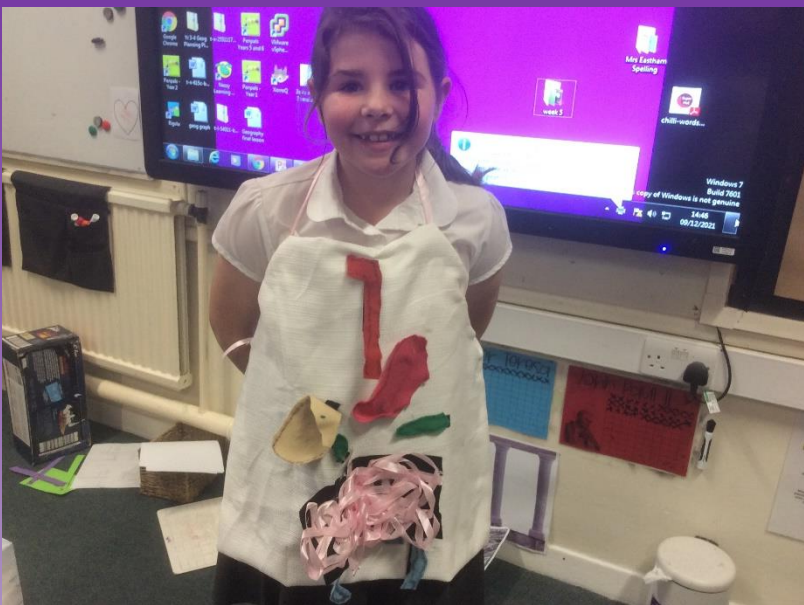

the battle of gulford was fought on the outskirts of the village of gulford just south of York in England on 26th of September 1066. When King Harold III of Norway also known as Harold Hardrada ("the ruler") in old Norse, meaning "hard ruler" and Tostig Godwinson his English ally fought and defeated the Norwegians. Edwin and Morcar Tostig was Harold Godwinson's brother. He had allied with King Harold of Norway and possibly Duke William of Normandy but there is no record of the reasoning behind his invasions. The earls of York could have hidden behind the walls of their city.

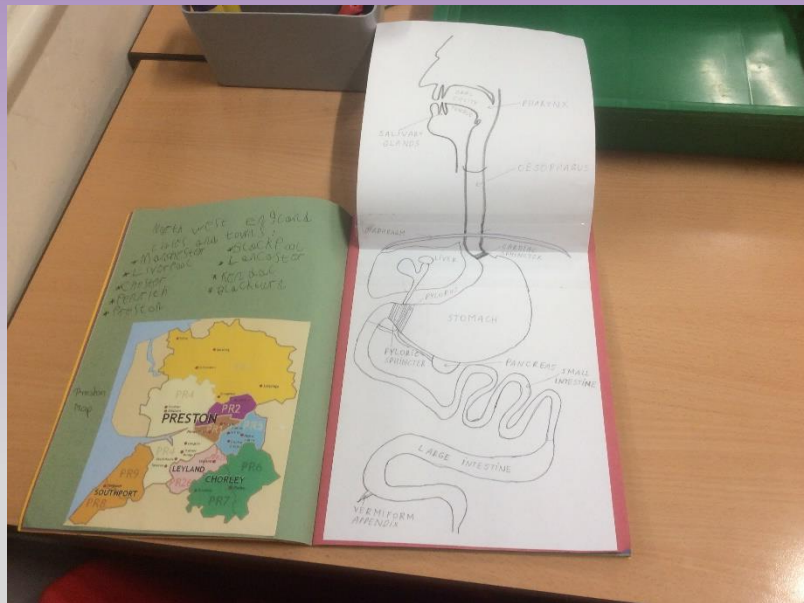

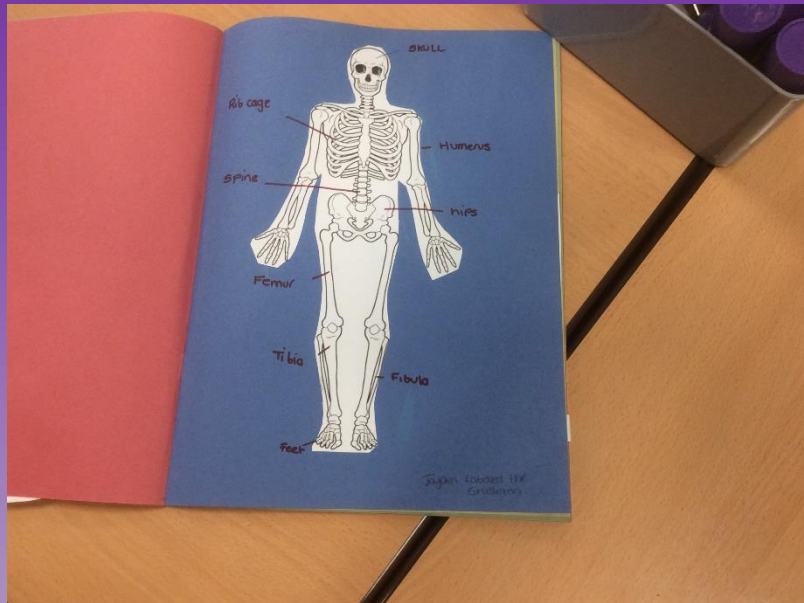

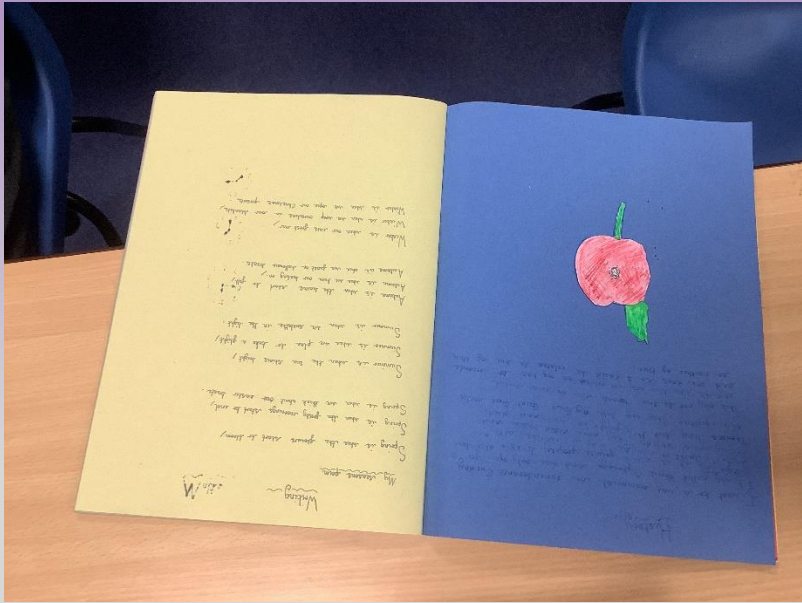

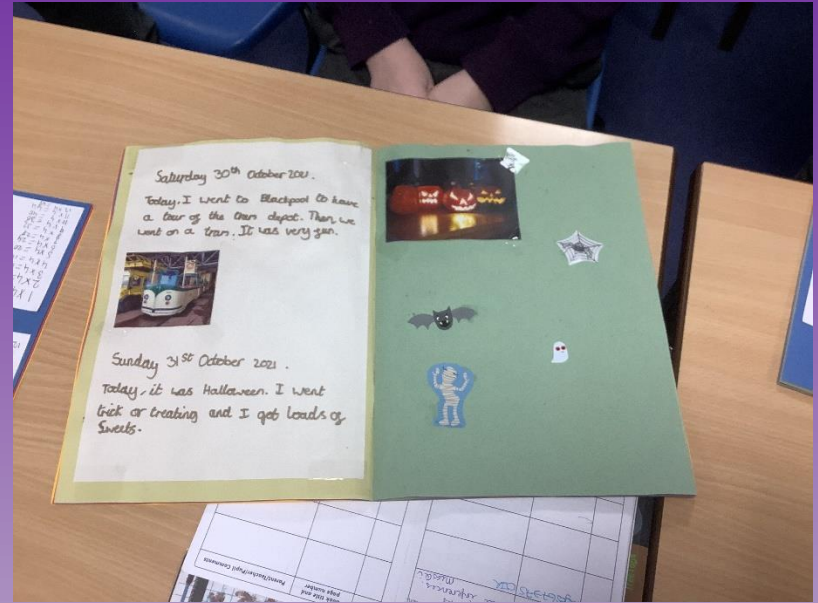

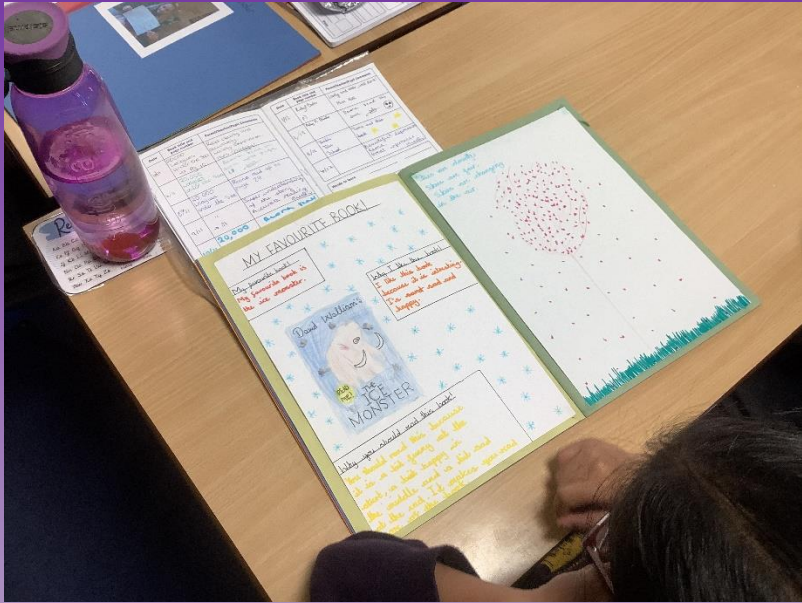

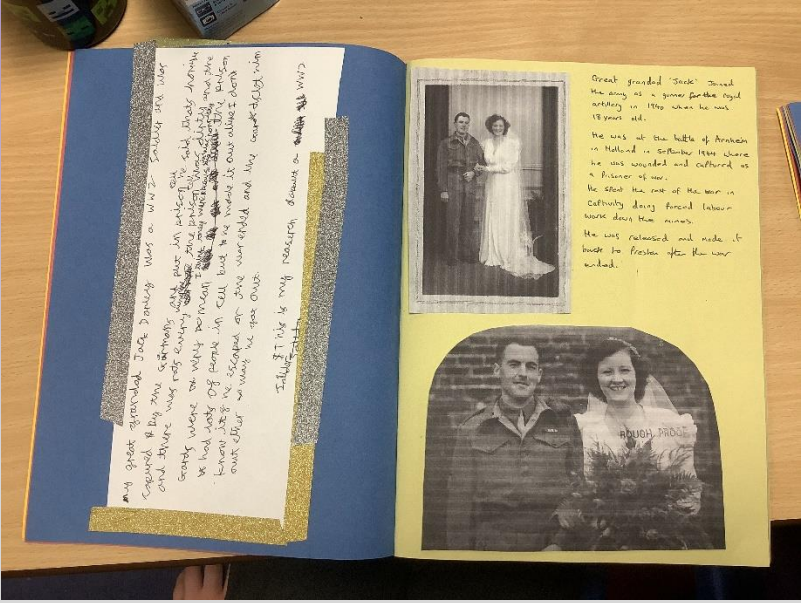

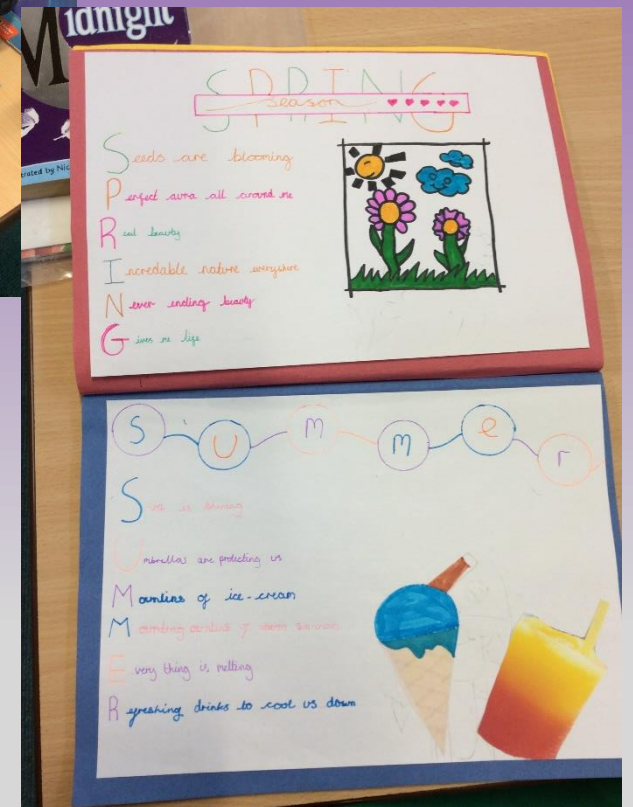

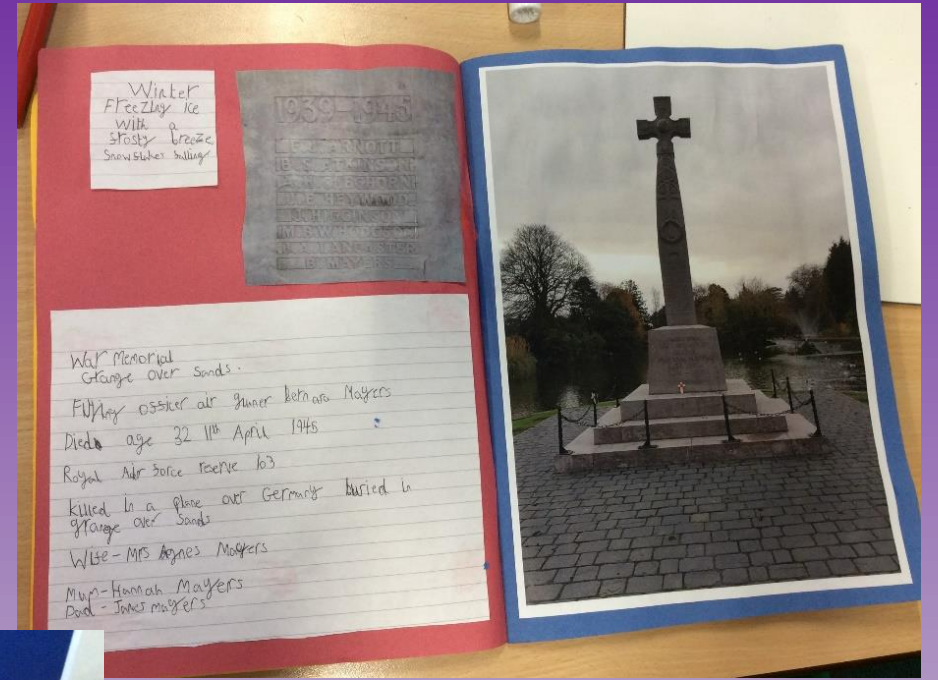

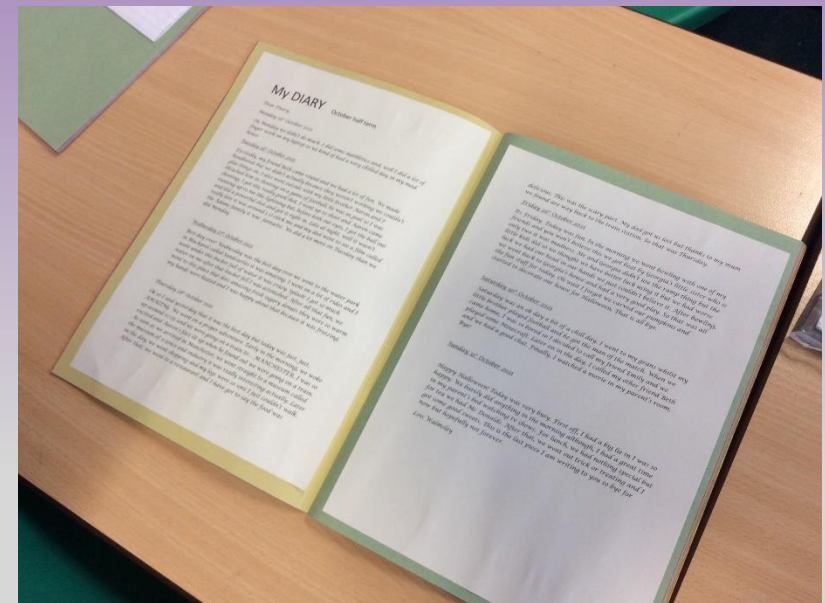

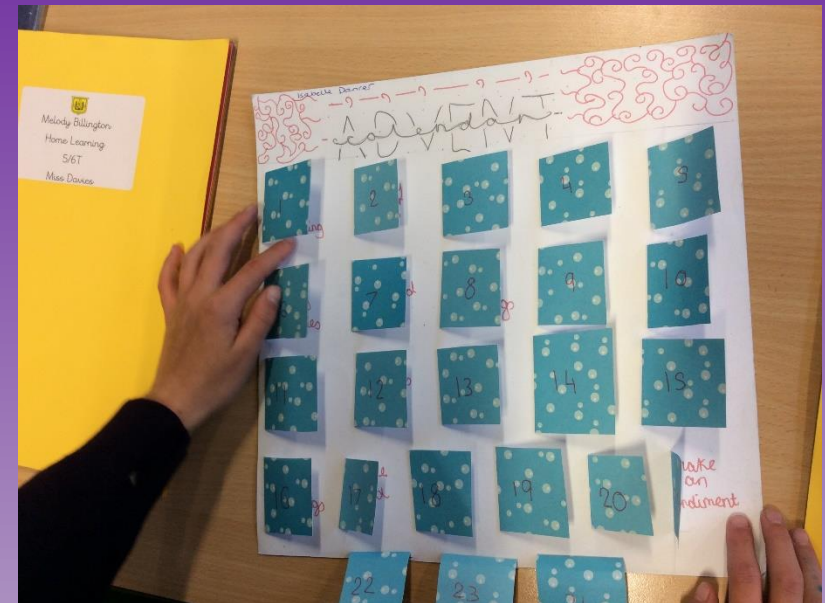

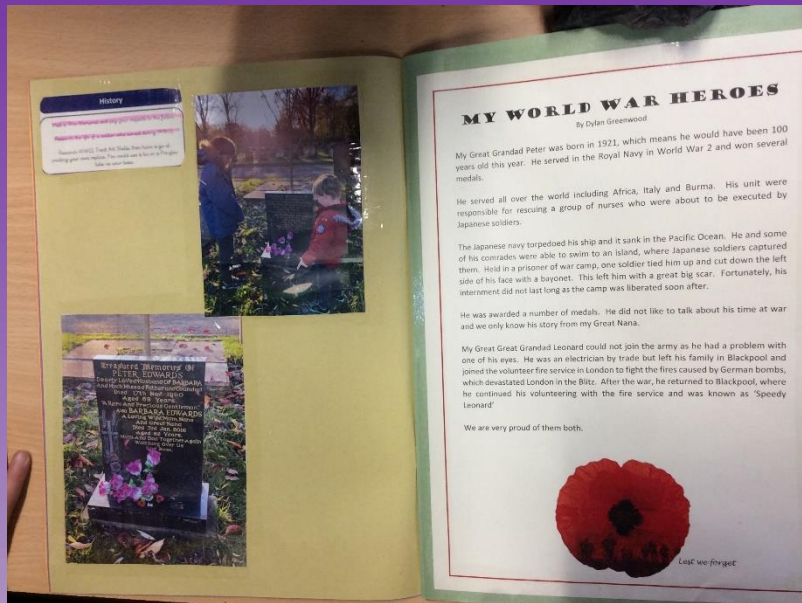

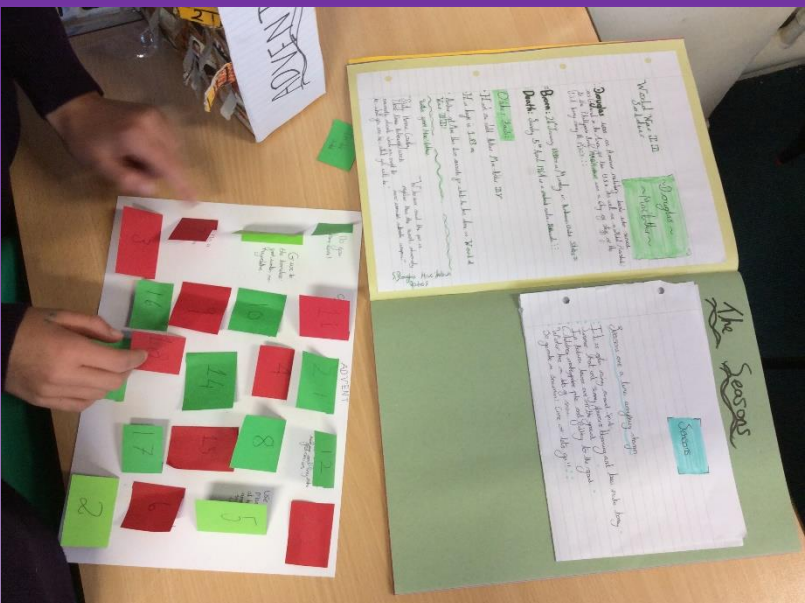

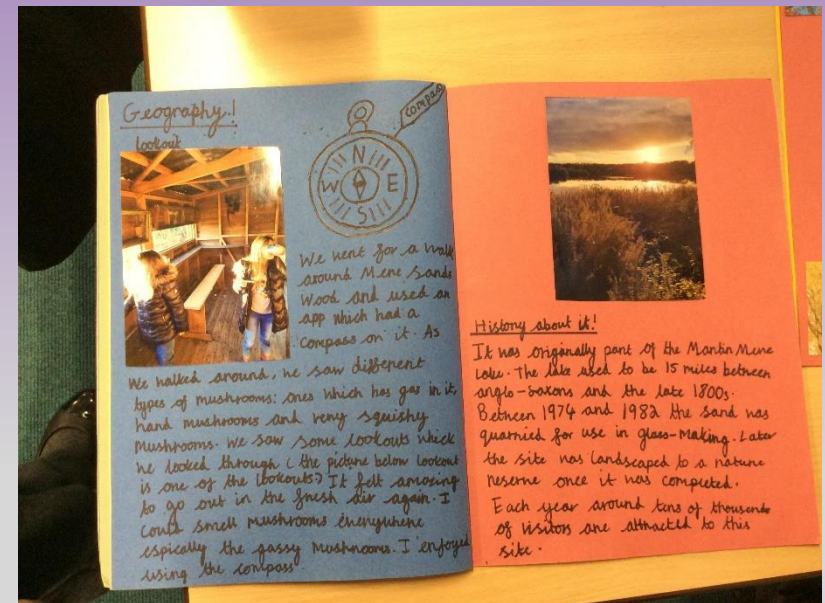

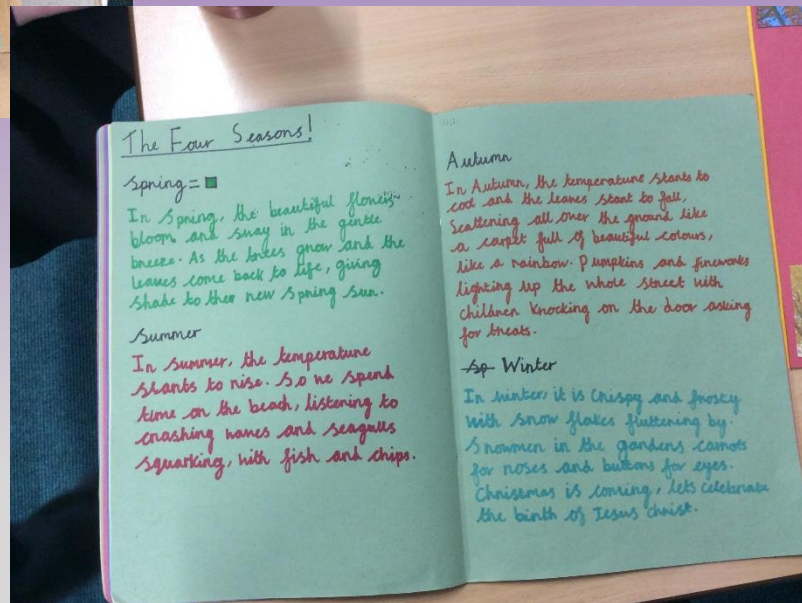

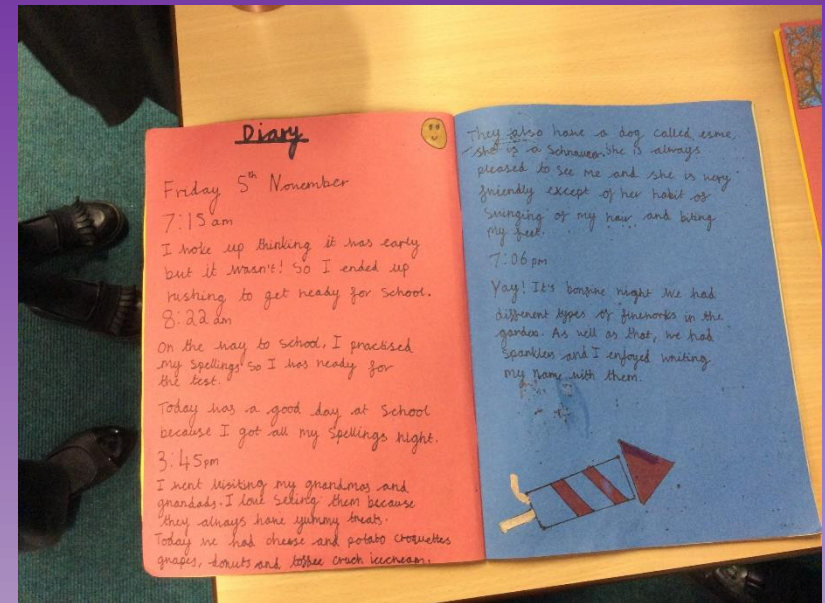

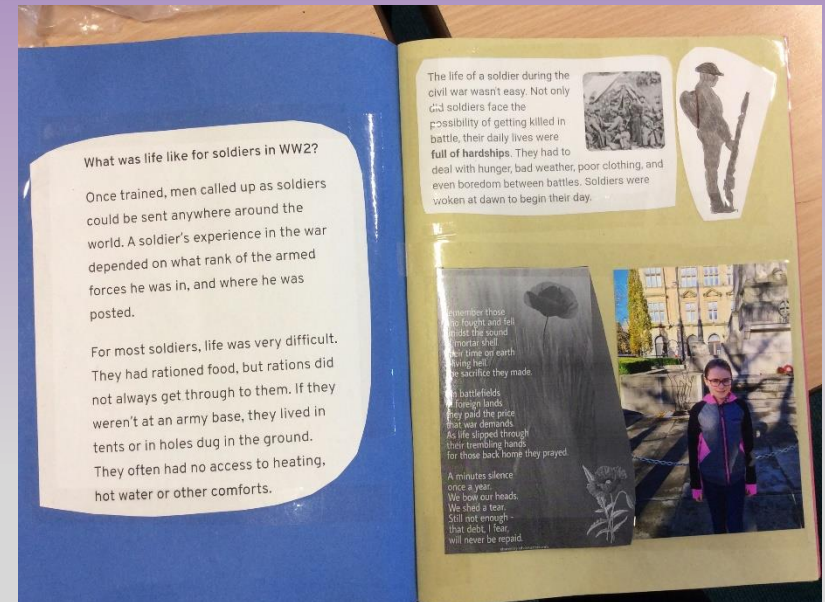

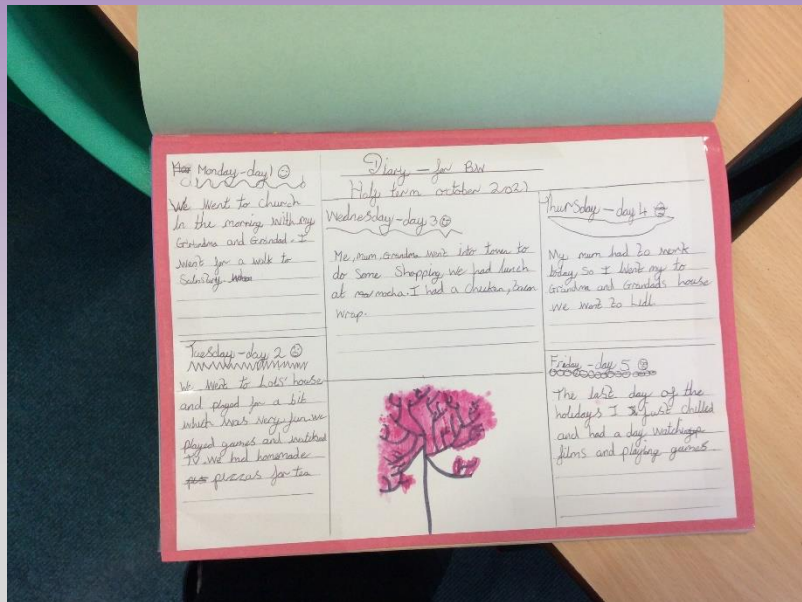

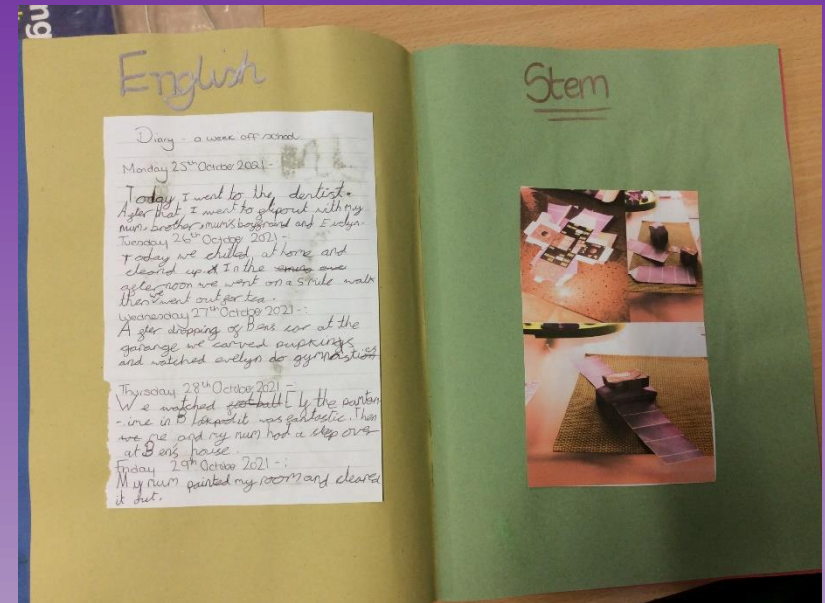

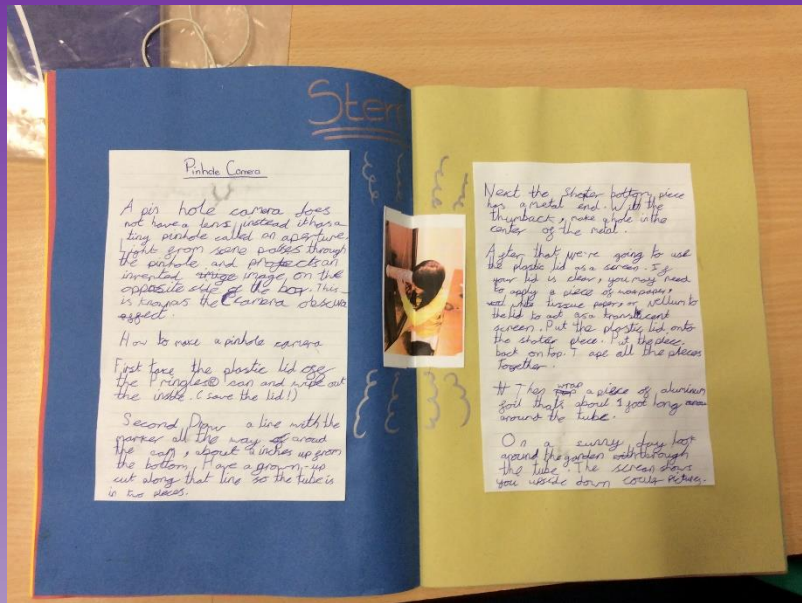

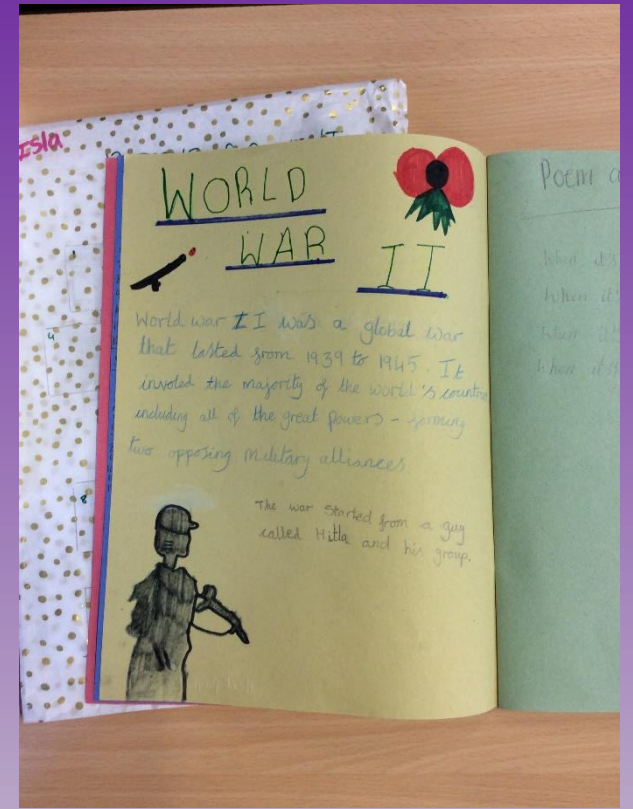

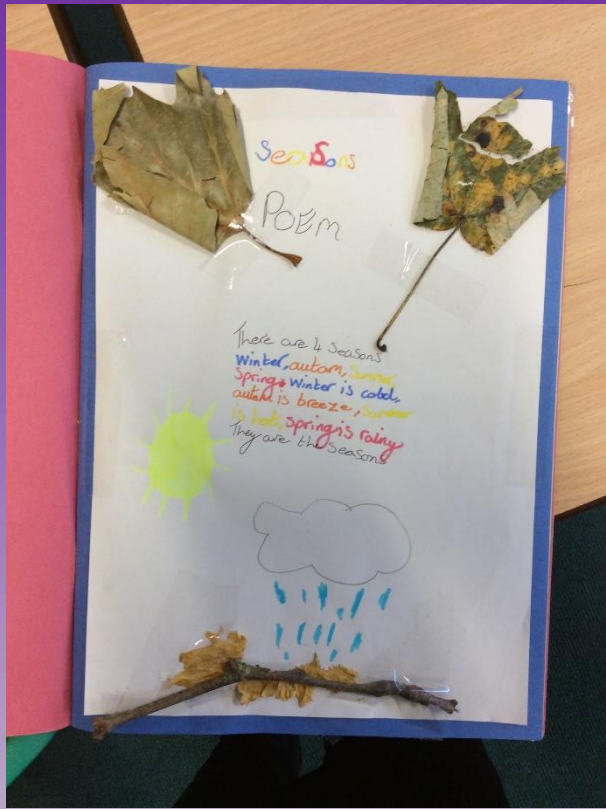

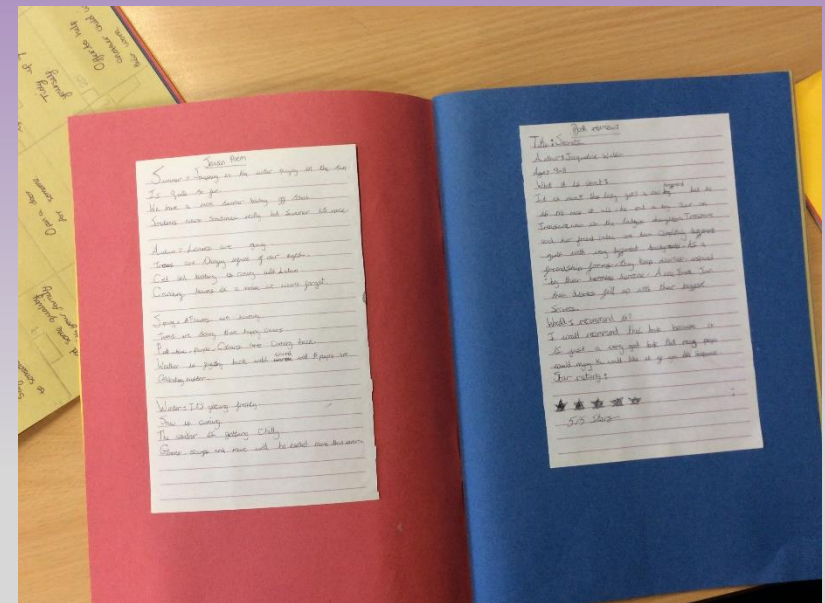

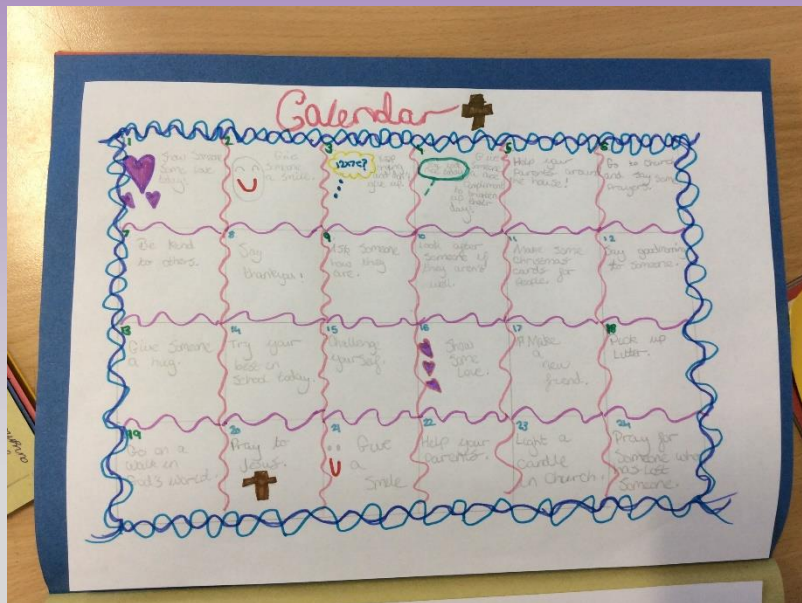

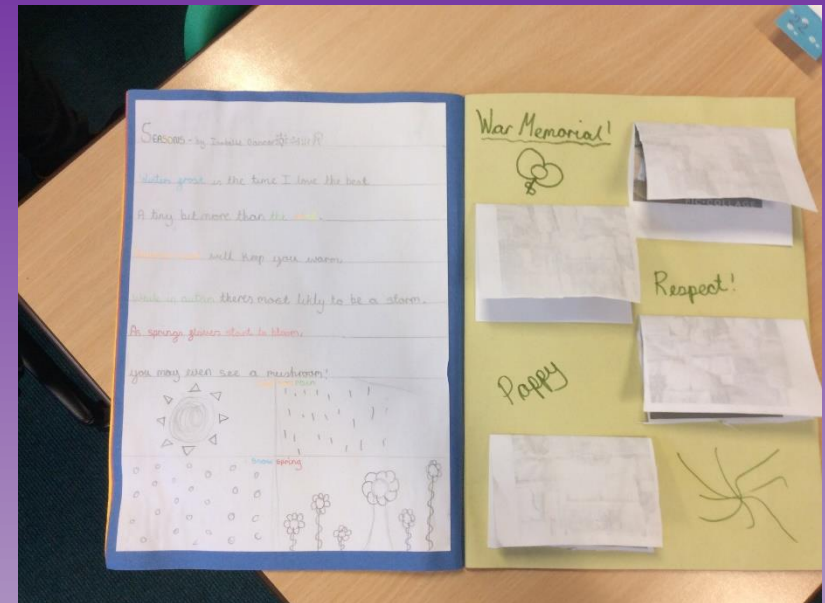

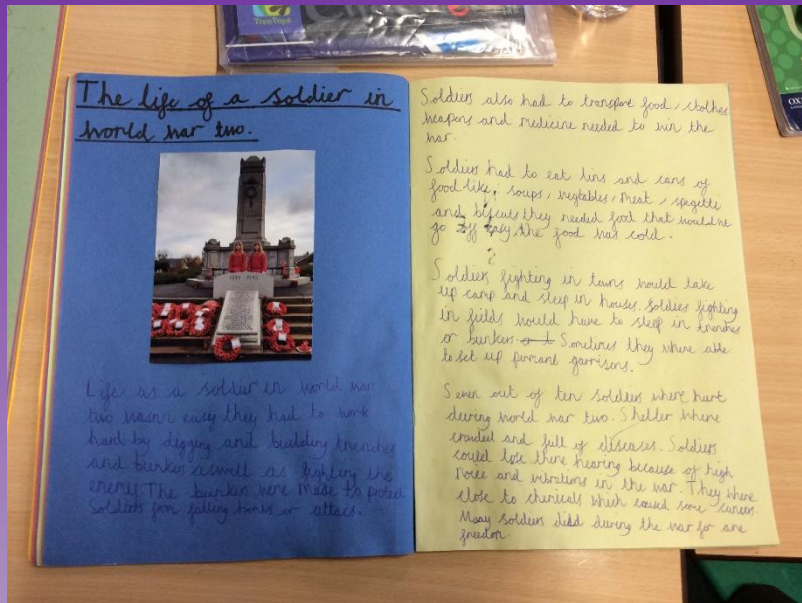

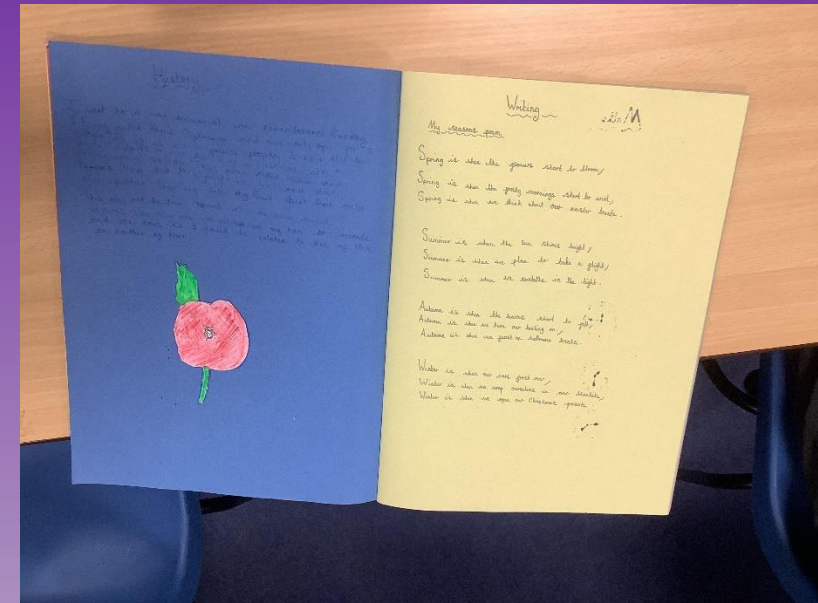

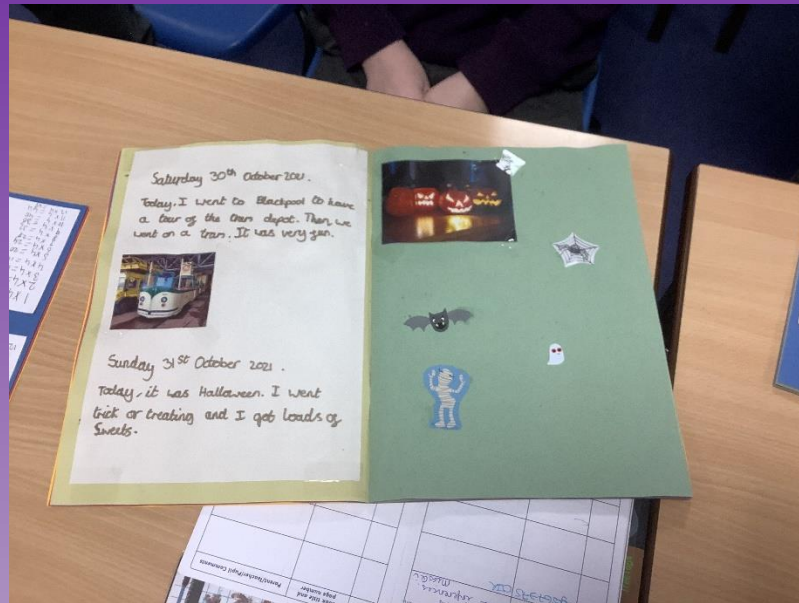

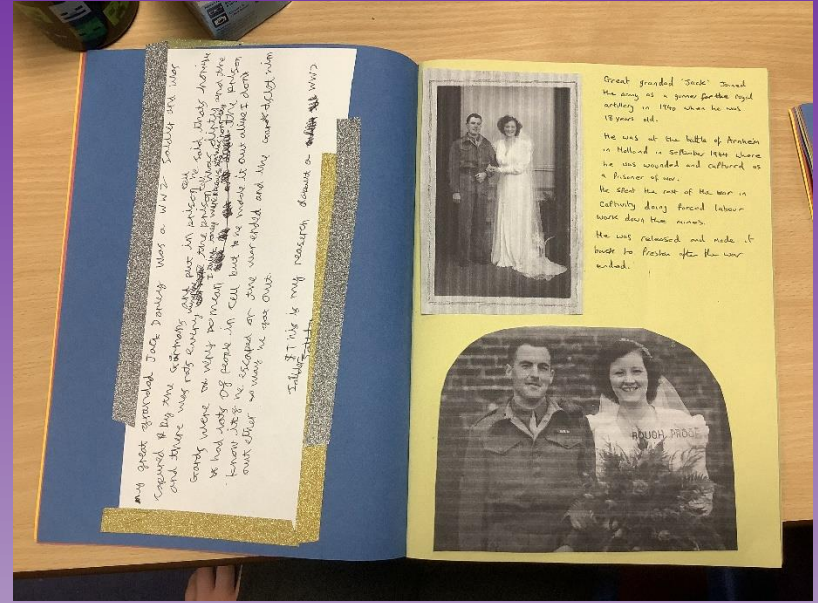

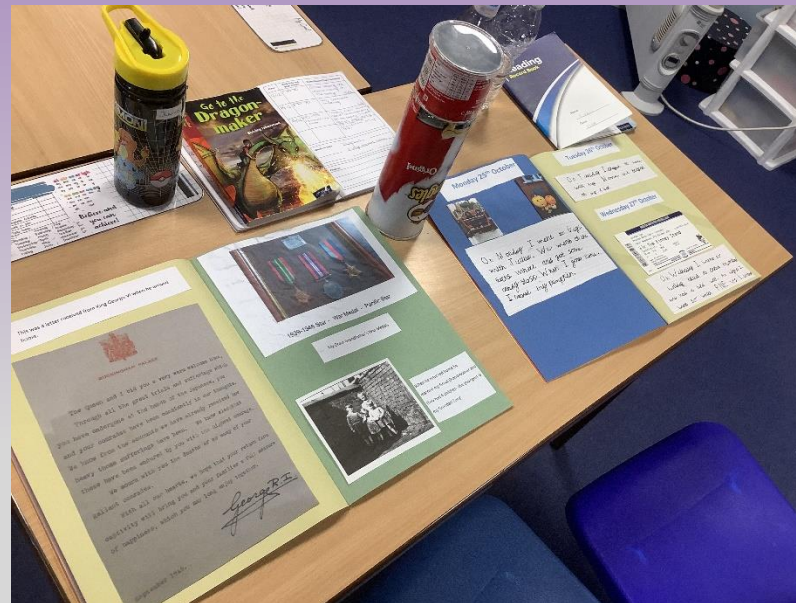

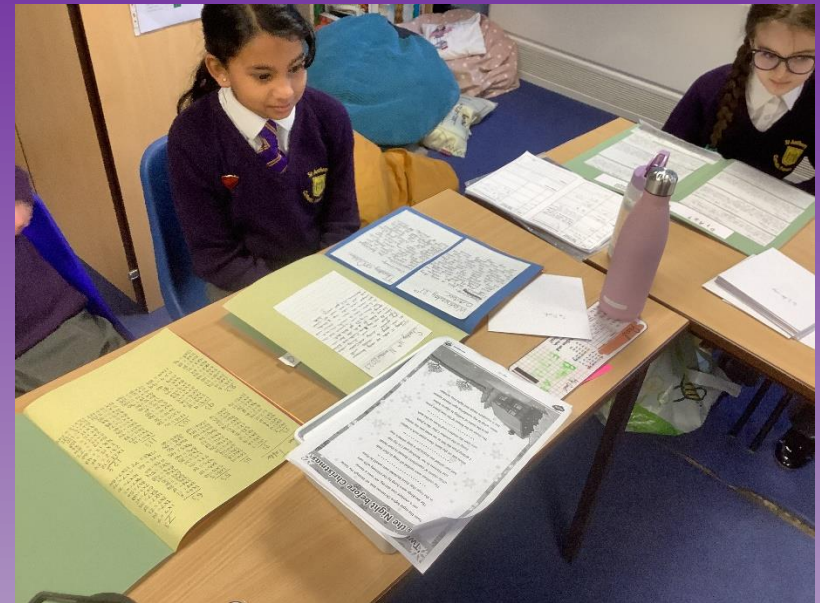

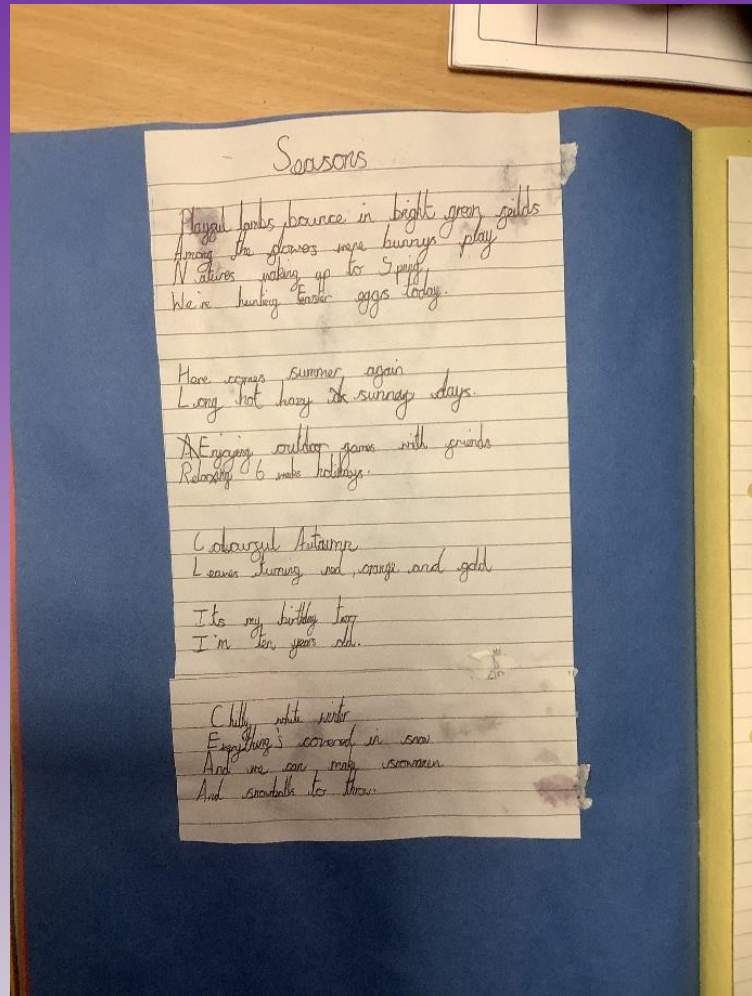

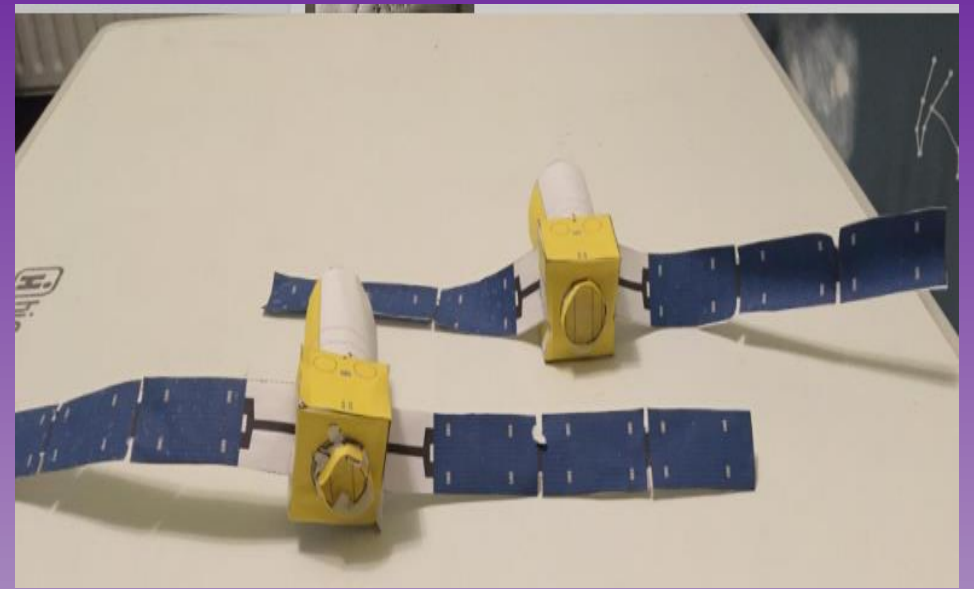

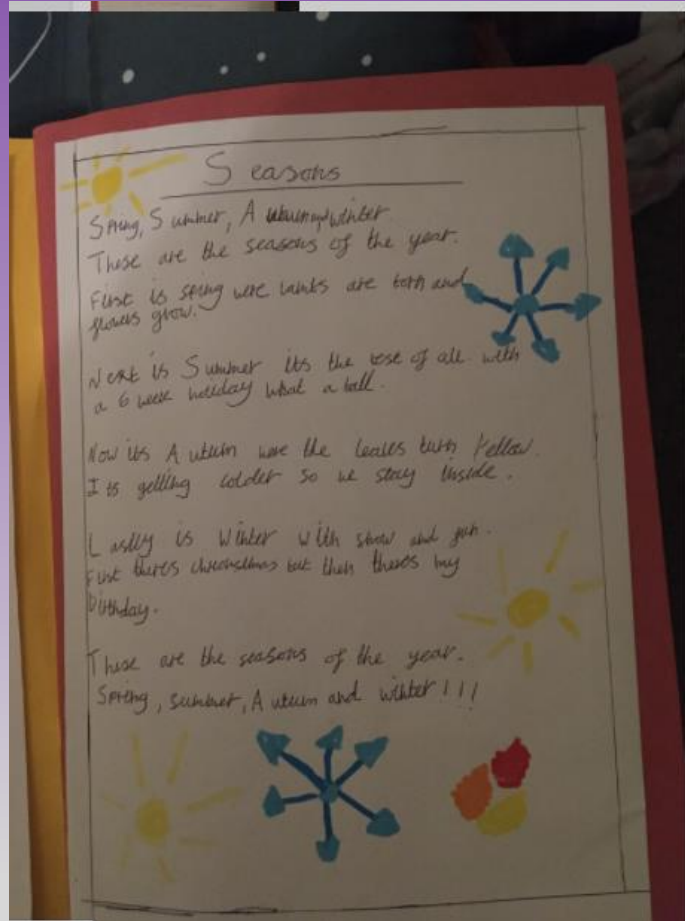

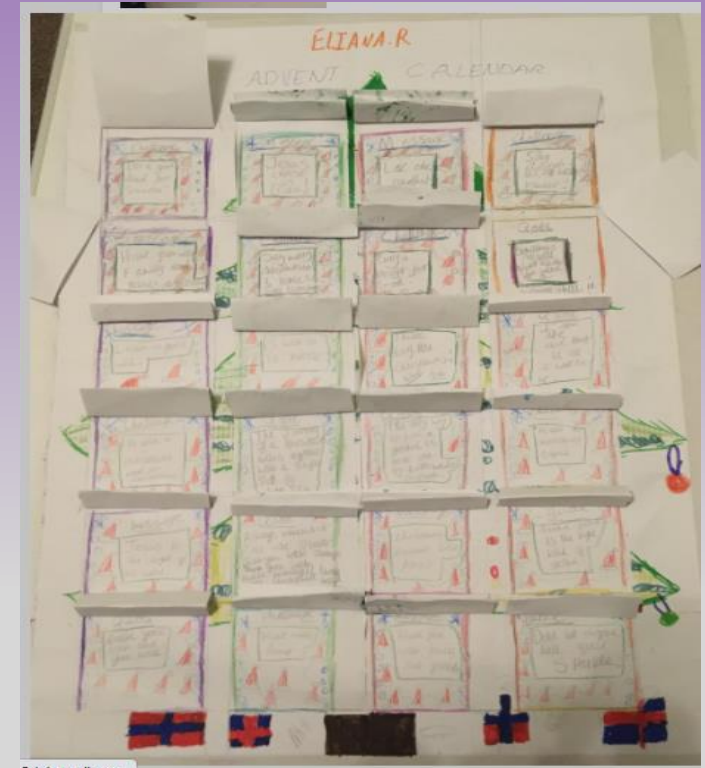

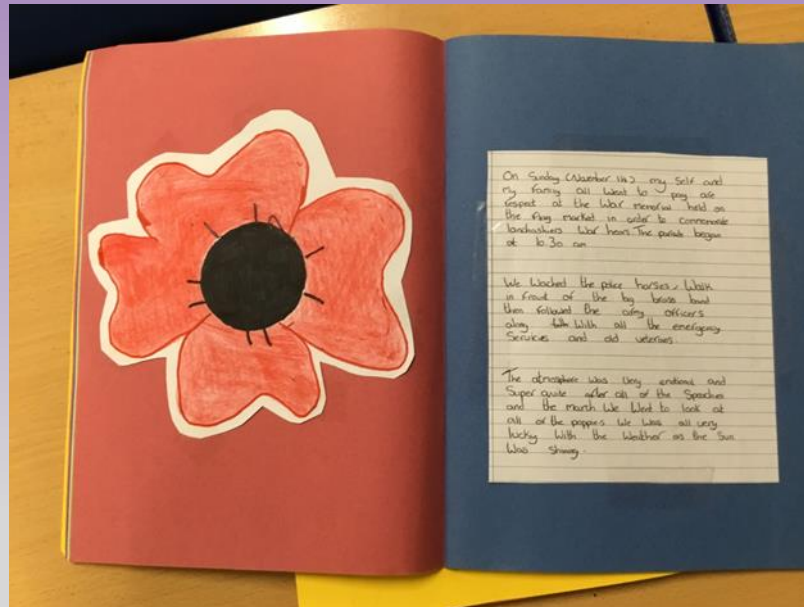

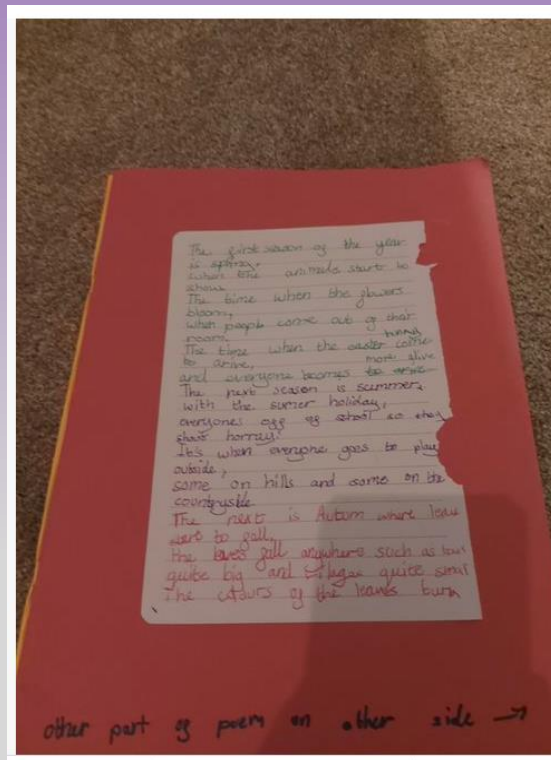

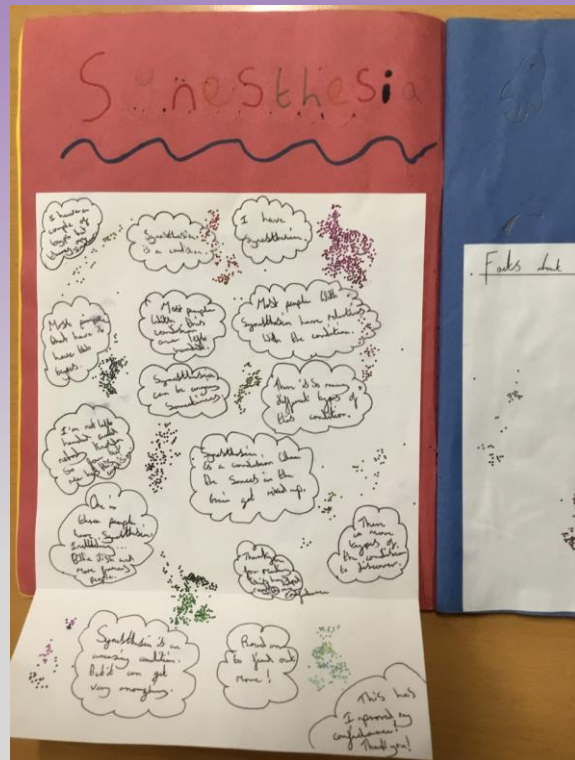

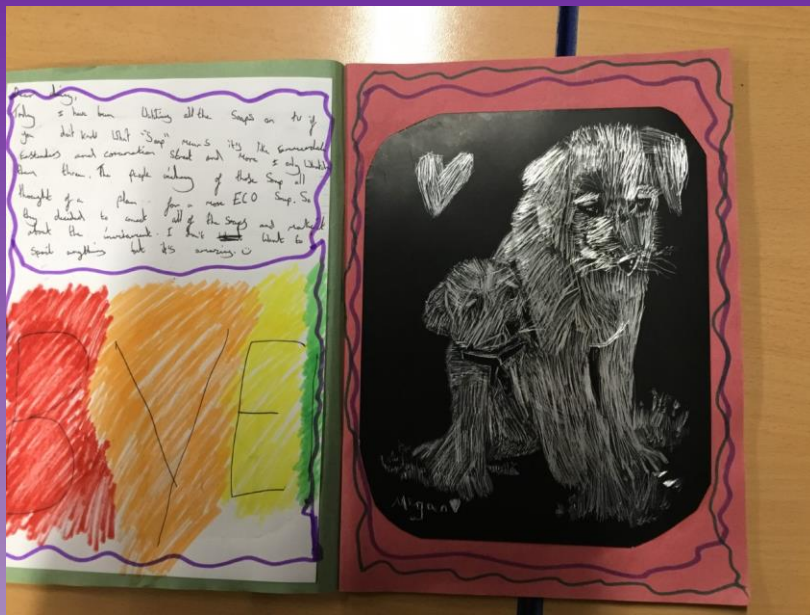

Havildar Lachhiman Gurung - The Deadly Gurkha

Havildar Lachhiman Gurung was a Nepalese rifleman in the 8th Gurkha Rifles, part of the Indian Army during World War II. Standing a mere 150 cm (4'11"), he served in Burma and fought against the deadly Imperial Japanese Army. On May 12 and 13, 1945, Gurung was in a forward position with his platoon at Taungdaw. In his forward post, he was utterly alone when a force of 200 Japanese soldiers attacked him. He managed to hurl back two grenades that landed near him, but as he attempted to throw back a third, it detonated and blew off his right hand. Gravely injured, Gurung refused to give up. For four long hours, he repeatedly reloaded his rifle, with one arm, and fought off the Japanese soldiers until reinforcements arrived.

Today was a pretty ordinary day except our class got covid so we had to do home schooling. Sadly, because of this I couldn't see my friends. I definitely found it harder to do home schooling but I got through it.

Tuesday

Today was pretty much like yesterday but a lot more stressful. I couldn't keep track of what I had to do. Finally, I had finished all my work and I had some time left over to chill.

Wednesday

We were back at school now and I found it a lot easier I could actually keep organised. We had Mr. Spenser and we had a great time at school again. I got to see all of my friends again and we had lots of fun in the playground.

Thursday

Today was the second to last forest school we would have. We had lots of fun there and I got higher up on the tree. We had biscuits and hot chocolate.

Friday

Today was an ordinary school day but today, like any other Friday, I had McDonalds. I went to training before I had my tea though.

Saturday

Saturday was a fun day because we went to training and then we went to get some Christmas lights. We got a star and some star shaped lights. We put up the lights and the tree. I put the star on top
