Another Day at the Office

An important key to the meaning of this Gospel story is the movement from shore to shallow water to deep water. If we think of Jesus' teaching from the solid ground of the shore as an introduction to the Gospel, then we might think of his teaching from the shallow waters as going a little deeper. We could liken the shore and the shallow water to the tip of the iceberg. But Jesus is about to call the first of his 12 disciples. If they are to truly become 'fishers of people,' Peter and the other disciples must come to know the 90% of the iceberg which is below the surface of the water. [1] Jesus' mentioning of the "deep water" implies that there may be unexplored areas of potential beyond our perceived limits of resources, knowledge and energy. Today's gospel invites us to dig deeply into our souls for parts of who we are that we don't know yet. [2]

We all know what's it's like to pour ourselves into a job, a relationship, a ministry, a dream — and come away exhausted, frustrated, thwarted and feeling that we have nothing to show for our efforts. But if Simon's experience is representative, maybe Jesus has a penchant for 'showing up' at precisely such moments of loss and defeat. Maybe he has good reasons for asking us to return to old places of pain and failure. In any case, when he asks, he doesn't stand at the shore and wave us forward; he steps into the boat and ventures into the deep water with us.' [3] 'Miracles meet us at our point of need, but they don't leave us there. They call us to move from being recipients to being participants, to share in the ways that God pours out God-self for the life of the community and the healing of the world.' [2]

'Jesus met Simon where he worked. Simon, James and John were commercial fishermen. They were on this beach every morning, cleaning their nets. It was just another day at the office when Jesus showed up.' [4] 'We don't follow Jesus in the abstract. We don't heed his call in general, as if Christianity comes down to nothing more than attending church or being a nice person. If we're going to follow him at all, we do it in the particulars of the lives, communities, cultures, families and vocations in which we find ourselves. The story honours the 'same old same olds' of our individual lives and assures us that God blesses and multiplies the daily stuff of our lives for his purposes.' [3]

Diocesan Pilgrimage to Walsingham

In this Jubilee Year our annual Diocesan Pilgrimage to Walsingham, the National Shrine to Our Blessed Lady, will take place 20-24 October 2025. I invite you to join me!

This year of favour, this Jubilee Year, will find the Church proclaiming the Gospel afresh, proclaiming liberty from the darkness of sin and healing, both physical and spiritual, for those who are oppressed (Lk 4:18-19). Our pilgrimage to Walsingham is therefore an excellent way to mark this time of grace, both as a diocese and individually.

It will be your first visit. In the Middle Ages, the Shrine at Walsingham, was one of the great ancient Marian places of pilgrimage in the whole of Christendom. It is known as England's very own Nazareth and is a place where the incarnation of Jesus is particularly remembered. Like Lourdes in France, it is a place of reconciliation, conversion, peace and healing.

The all-inclusive cost is £475.00-£550.00 (dependent on accommodation type). Coach collection/drop-off will take place in Workington, Carlisle, Penrith, Lancaster and Preston. For more information and booking details contact the pilgrimage organiser Deacon Charlie Conner on 07895 742 732 or email charlie.conner@lrdc.org.uk

Church Notice Boards

Thanks to Bernadette the Notice Boards in the porch are updated every week. There's lots of new and current information on them.

Offertory / donations giving

Thanks to everyone who has indicated if they would still like Offertory envelopes or if they prefer to use a standing order or the card machine.

For those who are setting up a standing order on their phone, the parish bank account details are as follows: It's a bit tricky! The name of the account in LRCCTR Parish of St Anthony-Preston. That's probably too long for the space allowed but St. Anthony-Preston should be acceptable along with the account number 81335308 and the sort code 40-27-02. Put your name down as the reference.
