Please make a note of your child's chosen afterschool club and the correct day, to avoid confusion on pick up.

Data Collection and Permission Forms

Data Collection and Permission forms were sent home last week for checking and completing. Please make sure when returning they are completed with full names, and information. These are for your child's school account. Please return as soon as possible.

School Admissions for September 2025

Applications are now open for children who are due to start primary or secondary school in September 2025.

If your child is now in Year 6 the deadline to apply for a secondary school place for your child is the 31st October 2024. If you have a child who is due to start primary school next year the deadline date is the 15th January 2025.

Applications can be made online via the link below:

School Lunch Box's

Please can we make sure all packed lunch's are healthy and well balanced with nutritional value. Children are coming into school with bags of sweets, which are not only unhealthy but a choking hazard. Please can we also ask that grapes are cut into half.

Appointments

We can fully appreciate the importance of children's Medical Appointments, however please can we ask that all children's appointment's are to be scheduled out of school hours where possible. This can be quite disruptive to learning time. Thank you in advance.

Mark 9:30-37

Summary: Jesus taught his disciples about his death and resurrection. In Capernaum, he addressed their argument about greatness, teaching that true greatness comes from being last and serving all, using a child as an example.

The Greatest in the Kingdom

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it.

He was teaching his disciples and telling them,

“The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise.”

But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him. They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them,

“What were you arguing about on the way?”

But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest.

Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them,

“If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.”

Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them,

“Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.”
