Information/Reminders

- Our school day starts at 8:55am and it is important that all pupils are in class and ready to start learning from this time. The number of children arriving after 8:55am is increasing and this disrupts their education and the education of the whole class. Please ensure that your child is in school before 8:55am. For information pupils are allowed on site from 8:45am.
- For parents of Junior children. If your child is allowed to walk home and they have a mobile phone for safety reasons please remind them that this must be handed into the school office when they arrive at school and collected when they leave. Pupils are not allowed to have access to their phones during the school day.

Please remember to read with your child every night - it does make a huge
