Bank Holiday & Inset Day

Please remember that school is closed on Monday, 2nd May 2022 for the Bank Holiday and Tuesday, 3rd May 2022 as it is an Inset Day.

School re-opens on Wednesday, 4th May 2022.

EID PARTIES

On Friday, 6th May 2022, our children will be celebrating Eid in school. Eid related activities will take place in the morning followed by parties in the afternoon (any food donations will be gratefully received).

Children can wear their own clothes but please remember that they will be playing out at break and dinner time.

SCHOOL START TIME

Please remember that school is open from 8:45am and lessons start at 8:55am – late arrivals disrupt the class lesson and your child's learning.

Ms Benson's Fundraising Challenge

Ms Benson, our Sycamore class teacher, is raising money again this year as part of Radio Rock FM's 5k a day in May challenge.

All the money raised by Ms Benson will go to the Rock FM Cash for Kids grant-giving charity that helps children that need it the most in Lancashire. Their mission is to improve the lives of disadvantaged children and young people in our communities who are affected by illness, poverty, neglect or have additional needs.

If you are able to sponsor Ms Benson, any amount you can give will be very much appreciated; the link below will take you to her donation page on the Rock FM website - don't forget to leave her a message.

Ofsted Parent View

Ofsted are due to visit St Augustine's soon and they would like your views on our school; you can do this by completing their online survey, Ofsted Parent View, at: www.parentview.ofsted.gov.uk

This survey asks for your opinion on some aspects of our school, including the progress made by your child, the quality of teaching, how we deal with bullying and poor behaviour etc. It also provides a free-text box for you to make additional comments, if you wish.

Please can you take the time to complete the survey as your views are considered by Ofsted when we undergo the inspection.

Sunday, 1st May 2022, is the Third Sunday of Easter

In this Sunday's Gospel we hear that after Jesus had died and risen again, the disciples were out fishing in their boat when Jesus appeared on the beach. They hadn't managed to catch anything, so Jesus told them to throw out their net again. This time they managed to catch lots of fish.

Gospel: John 21: 1-19

After this, Jesus appeared once more to his disciples at Lake Tiberias. This is how it happened. Simon Peter, Thomas (called the Twin), Nathanael (the one from Cana in Galilee), the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples of Jesus were all together. Simon Peter said to the others, "I am going fishing."

"We will come with you," they told him. So they went out in a boat, but all that night they did not catch a thing. As the sun was rising, Jesus stood at the water's edge, but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Then he asked them, "Young men, haven't you caught anything?"

"Not a thing," they answered.

He said to them, "Throw your net out on the right side of the boat, and you will catch some." So they threw the net out and could not pull it back in, because they had caught so many fish.

The disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his outer garment round him (for he had taken his clothes off) and jumped into the water. The other disciples came to shore in the boat, pulling the net full of fish. They were not very far from land, about a hundred metres away. When they stepped ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there with fish on it and some bread. Then Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught."

Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net ashore full of big fish, 153 in all; even though there were so many, still the net did not tear. Jesus said to them, "Come and eat." None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. So Jesus went over, took the bread, and gave it to them; he did the same with the fish.

This, then, was the third time Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from death.

After they had eaten, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?"

"Yes, Lord," he answered, "you know that I love you."

Jesus said to him, "Take care of my lambs." A second time Jesus said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?"

"Yes, Lord," he answered, "you know that I love you."

Jesus said to him, "Take care of my sheep." A third time Jesus said, "Simon son of John, do you love me?"

Peter became sad because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" and so he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you!"

Jesus said to him, "Take care of my sheep. I am telling you the truth: when you were young, you used to get ready and go anywhere you wanted to; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands and someone else will bind you and take you where you don't want to go." (In saying this, Jesus was indicating the way in which Peter would die and bring glory to God.) Then Jesus said to him, "Follow me!"
