Teacher Strike Update - Message from Mr Entwistle

You may be aware from the news that there are two more NEU teacher union strike days proposed for next Wednesday and Friday the 5th and 7th July 2023.

Please note that staff are not under any obligation to notify me in advance and reserve the right to strike and can do so right up to the day.

At present, I have been advised by our school teaching staff that they do not plan to take part in the strike action this time.

Therefore, based on this information, school will be open as normal on Wednesday and Friday the 5th and 7th July 2023.

In the unlikely event that there are any changes to this, I will notify you as soon as possible.

After School Clubs

After School Clubs have now finished and will start again in September 2023. Please remember to collect your child/children at 3:15pm.

To help us with our planning for the next school year, please inform the school office if you are moving away/ leaving the area and you do not plan to send your child/ren to St Augustine's from September 2023.

This Sunday, 2nd July 2023 is the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week we learn how we welcome Jesus when we welcome and care for one another.

Gospel: Matthew 10:37-42

Jesus taught the twelve disciples:

“Those who love their father or mother more than me are not fit to be my disciples; those who love their son or daughter more than me are not fit to be my disciples. Those who do not take up their cross and follow in my steps are not fit to be my disciples. Those who try to gain their own life will lose it; but those who lose their life for my sake will gain it.

“Whoever welcomes you welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes God's messenger because he is God's messenger, will share in his reward. And whoever welcomes a good man because he is good, will share in his reward. You can be sure that whoever gives even a drink of cold water to one of the least of these my followers because he is my follower, will certainly receive a reward.”
