Bullying!

Bullying is ...

wrong

hurtful

done on purpose

done again and again

It is something that can happen:

to anyone

anytime

anywhere

in any way

Bystanders!

If you see someone being bullied, you can help by:

not laughing

telling the bully to stop

not joining in

telling an adult about it

If you join in or do nothing,

YOU
are a bully, too!

Reflection

We are all different, but we are all capable of friendship, sharing and respect.

If we respect others, then they will respect us in return. That's how friendship and how sharing works.

We are all different, but we are all together in one school family.

Think to yourself now about how you will show respect for others today and celebrate and accept our differences.

Dear Lord, We are sorry for not always showing our respect to each other and for allowing bullying to happen. Help us find the courage to tell others when we need support.

Thank you for friends that help us when we are hurt or upset. Please help us to stay strong when we are faced with bullying and help us to spread the values of friendship and respect.

Trust us not to judge others and show us how to treat people in the way that we want to be treated.

We promise to respect everyone's differences and beliefs and not hold them against them. Forgive those who have bullied and show them the right way to treat others. Please help us to hold the lessons we learn in anti-bullying week across the year. Amen
